Anthropology for the Nineties Johnnetta B. Cole, 1988 African-American Pioneers in Anthropology Ira E. Harrison, Faye V. Harrison, Faye Venetia Harrison, 1999 This pathbreaking collection of intellectual biographies is the first to probe the careers of thirteen early African American anthropologists detailing both their achievements and their struggle with the latent and sometimes blatant racism of the times Invaluable to historians of anthropology this collection will also be useful to readers interested in African American studies and biography The lives and work of Caroline Bond Day Zora Neale Hurston Louis Eugene King Laurence Foster W Montague Cobb Katherine Dunham Ellen Irene Diggs Allison Davis St Clair Drake Arthur Huff Fauset William S Willis Jr Hubert Barnes Ross Elliot Skinner Anthropology Raymond Scupin, Christopher R. DeCorse, 2019-12-20 Integrating historical biological archaeological and applied approaches with ethnographic data from around the world Anthropology A Global Perspective is founded on four essential themes the diversity of human societies the similarities that tie all humans together the interconnections between the sciences and humanities and a new theme addressing psychological essentialism Readings in African American Language Nathaniel Norment, 2003 Readings in African American Language Aspects Features and Perspectives Volume 2 brings together scholars who research various theoretical approaches of the origin characteristics and development of African American Vernacular English AAVE The advantages of AAVE codeswitching dialect interference in writing theories and politics in AAVE text analysis and critical pedagogy all are discussed in this volume Each article provides a different perspective attesting to the vitality and relevance of African American language as an academic social and cultural linguistic entry in the field of language studies Black Linguistics Arnetha Ball, Sinfrey Makoni, Geneva Smitherman, Arthur K. Spears, Foreword by Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, 2005-08-19 Enslavement forced migration war and colonization have led to the global dispersal of Black communities and to the fragmentation of common experiences The majority of Black language researchers explore the social and linguistic phenomena of individual Black communities without looking at Black experiences outside a given community This groundbreaking collection re orders the elitist and colonial elements of language studies by drawing together the multiple perspectives of Black language researchers In doing so the book recognises and formalises the existence of a Black Linguistic Perspective highlights the contributions of Black language researchers in the field Written exclusively by Black scholars on behalf of and in collaboration with local communities the book looks at the commonalities and differences among Black speech communities in Africa and the Diaspora Topics include the OJ Simpson trial language issues in Southern Africa and Francophone West Africa the language of Hip Hop the language of the Rastafaria in Jamaica With a foreword by Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o this is essential reading for anyone with an interest in the linguistic implications of colonization A Place in the Sun Catherine Davies, 1997 A Place in the Sun examines the work of Cuban women writers in the 20th century Catherine Davies explores how Cuban women's literature has contributed to constructions of a collective identity The Cambridge

History of the English Language: English in North America Richard M. Hogg, Norman Francis Blake, John Algeo, R. W. Burchfield, 1992 The volumes of The Cambridge history of the English language reflect the spread of English from its beginnings in Anglo Saxon England to its current role as a multifaceted global language that dominates international communication in the 21st century

An Angel's View Reginald E. Hicks, 2012-10 Throughout the ages and stages of American history grandmothers have been the guardians of the generations the dispensers of wisdom the instillers of pride and dignity the conveyors of important religious values the financial and emotional supporters of the family during times of need and the promoters of cultural standards and traditions From Maya Angelou to Martin Luther King Jr to Oprah Winfrey the success of many African Americans can be traced back to the love and support of a grandmother Author Reginald E Hicks is no exception For Hicks An Angel's View began as a labor of love to chronicle the life of his own beloved grandmother from her birth on the family farm in rural New Kent County Virginia in 1923 through her personal social and political trials and tribulations to her quickly approaching eighty ninth birthday However his humble commemoration eventually blossomed into an emotional story of love betrayal triumph and tragedy embedded in a riveting and dynamic Southern history Through this exceptional work Hicks makes a unique and valuable contribution to his family and to the world of black literature The Political Dimension In Teacher Education Beverly Lindsay, Mark B. Ginsburg, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1995 This collection of papers was shaped by a variety of colleagues who attended the panel sessions on this topic organized at the annual meetings of the American Educational Studies Association 1992 the Comparative and International Education Society 1993 and the American Educational Research Association 1994 The inspiration for this volume are the many policy makers teacher educators and teacher education students around the world who have struggled and continue to struggle about and in programs to prepare teachers formally Reading this volume will benefit the individual in that they will not only understand better the challenges they face but also be encouraged and empowered to pursue their political goals particularly those aimed at creating a world in which power and resources are distributed in a just and equitable manner

The Second Generation of African American Pioneers in Anthropology Ira E. Harrison, Deborah Johnson-Simon, Erica Lorraine Williams, 2018-11-15 After the pioneers the second generation of African American anthropologists trained in the late 1950s and 1960s Expected to study their own or similar cultures these scholars often focused on the African diaspora but in some cases they also ranged further afield both geographically and intellectually Yet their work remains largely unknown to colleagues and students This volume collects intellectual biographies of fifteen accomplished African American anthropologists of the era The authors explore the scholars diverse backgrounds and interests and look at their groundbreaking methodologies ethnographies and theories They also place their subjects within their tumultuous times when antiracism and anticolonialism transformed the field and the emergence of ideas around racial vindication brought forth new worldviews Scholars profiled George Clement Bond Johnnetta B Cole James Lowell Gibbs Jr Vera Mae Green John Langston
