Zeiger, 2018-05-31 Using as her starting point the story of Orpheus and Eurydice Melissa F Zeiger examines modern transformations of poetic elegy particularly as they reflect historical changes in the politics of gender and sexuality Although her focus is primarily on nineteenth and twentieth century poetry the scope of her investigation is grand from John Milton's Lycidas to very recently written AIDS and breast cancer elegies Milton epitomized the traditional use of the Orpheus myth as an illustration of the female threat to masculine poetic prowess focused on the beleaguered Orpheus Zeiger documents the gradual inclusion of Eurydice from the elegies of Algernon Charles Swinburne through the work of Thomas Hardy and John Berryman re-examining the role of Eurydice and the feminine more generally in poetic production Zeiger then considers women poets who challenge the assumptions of elegies written by men sometimes identifying themselves with Eurydice Among these poets are H D Edna St Vincent Millay Anne Sexton and Elizabeth Bishop Zeiger concludes with a discussion of elegies for victims of current plagues explaining how poets mourning those lost to AIDS and breast cancer rewrite elegy in ways less repressive sacrificial or punitive than those of the Orphean tradition Among the poets discussed are Essex Hemphill Thom Gunn Mark Doty Audre Lorde Adrienne Rich and Marilyn Hacker

Beyond Comfort Zones in Multiculturalism Sandra Jackson, Jose Solis, 1995-10-24 For peoples whose legal agreements treaties and other accords and conventions with the United States have been violated multiculturalism as a pedagogical tool often becomes suspect of reinforcing the continued reification and abstraction of their cultures and nations with little if any real meaning for educational and social transformation The continued oppression and repression of the exercise of self determination for African Americans the persistence of policies aimed at the destruction of indigenous populations and land the insidious continuation of classical colonialism in the case of Puerto Rico are all vivid reminders to these peoples of the racist classist sexist and homophobic patriarchy that characterizes their status In order to restore people s rights to fully determine their own histories Jackson and Solis point out that it is imperative to destroy the material foundations that breed and recycle the ideology discourse and cultural practices of domination It is not enough to celebrate diversity and difference there must be grand scale social political economic and educational transformation Beyond Innocence & Redemption Marc H. Ellis,2016-04-25 After the Gulf War and amidst the ongoing peace process this timely book speaks to the need to address the deeper issues of Israel and Palestine issues that concerned Jews Arabs and Christians must face if the legitimate rights of the Palestinians and the moral integrity of the State of Israel are to survive the rush to a new world order in the Middle East On Consolation Michael Ignatieff,2025-09-23

Timely and profound philosophical meditations on how great figures in history literature music and art searched for solace while facing tragedies and crises from the internationally renowned historian of ideas and Booker Prize finalist Michael Ignatieff When we lose someone we love when we suffer loss or defeat when catastrophe strikes war famine pandemic we go in search of consolation Once the province of priests and philosophers the language of consolation has largely vanished from our modern vocabulary and the places where it was offered houses of religion are often empty Rejecting the solace of ancient religious texts humanity since the sixteenth century has increasingly placed its faith in science ideology and the therapeutic How do we console each other and ourselves in an age of unbelief In a series of lapidary meditations on writers artists musicians and their works from the books of Job and Psalms to Albert Camus Anna Akhmatova and Primo Levi esteemed writer and historian Michael Ignatieff shows how men and women in extremity have looked to each other across time to recover hope and resilience Recreating the moments when great figures found the courage to confront their fate and the determination to continue unafraid On Consolation takes those stories into the present movingly contending that we can revive these traditions of consolation to meet the anguish and uncertainties of our precarious twenty first century Sense and Sensibility: Jane Austen,1811 The Poetry of Loss Judith Harris,2023-05-15 The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies presents a renewed look at elegy as a long standing tradition in the literature of loss exploring recent shifts in the continuum of these memorial poems This volume investigates the tensions arising in elegiac formulations of grief through detailed analyses of seminal poets including Wordsworth Keats and Plath using psychoanalytic precepts to reconceptualize consolation through poetic strategies of inner representation and what it might mean for personal and collective experiences of loss Tracing the development of elegy beyond extant readings this volume addresses contemporary constructs of mourning and their attendant polemics within the wider culture as extensions of elegiac longings and the tendency to refuse consolation and cede to the endlessness of grief Furthermore this book concludes that contemporary elegies break with conventions of poetic structure and expression rather than the poets seeking resolution to grief through compensation they often find themselves dwelling within the loss rather than externalizing and transcending it The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies examines these developing psychoanalytic concepts pertaining to a poetics of loss providing readers with a new appreciation of mourning culture and contemporary attitudes towards grief Beyond Religion David N Elkins,2013-11-01 Let David Elkins psychologist and former minister show you how to find authentic soul nurturing spirituality outside church or temple walls Discover your personal path to the sacred and explore new ways to bring nonreligious spirituality into your life Bearing Witness Bernie Glassman,2013-01-08 Zen practitioner and non profit community developer Bernie Glassman offers powerful teaching stories that illustrate ways of making peace one moment at a time Each chapter focuses on an event or person and demonstrates how a particular peacemaker vow is put into practice Through these stories and Glassman s personal testimony we come to understand the essence of peacemaking
