

A man and a woman are standing outdoors near a body of water, possibly a pond or lake. The woman, in the foreground, is smiling and wearing a sleeveless dress with a colorful, abstract pattern in shades of orange, yellow, and brown. The man, standing behind her, has a serious expression and is wearing a blue button-down shirt under a dark navy blue jacket. The background features a calm body of water, green reeds in the foreground, and rolling green hills under a sky with scattered white clouds.

Beyond Paradise:

Beyond Ethnicity Camilla Fojas, Rudy P. Guevarra, Nitasha Tamar Sharma, 2018-03-31 Written by scholars of various disciplines the essays in this volume dig beneath the veneer of Hawai'i's myth as a melting pot paradise to uncover historical and complicated cross racial dynamics Race is not the primary paradigm through which Hawai'i is understood Instead ethnic difference is celebrated as a sign of multicultural globalism that designates Hawai'i as the crossroads of the Pacific Racial inequality is disruptive to the tourist image of the islands It ruptures the image of tolerance diversity and happiness upon which tourism business and so many other vested transnational interests in the islands are based The contributors of this interdisciplinary volume reconsider Hawai'i as a model of ethnic and multiracial harmony through the lens of race in their analysis of historical events group relations and individual experiences and humor among other focal points Beyond Ethnicity examines the dynamics between race ethnicity and indigeneity to challenge the primacy of ethnicity and cultural practices for examining difference in Hawai'i while recognizing the significant role of settler colonialism This original and thought provoking volume reveals what a racial analysis illuminates about the current political configuration of the islands and in doing so challenges how we conceptualize race on the continent Recognizing the ways that Native Hawaiians or K naka Maoli are impacted by shifting violent and hierarchical colonial structures that include racial inequalities the editors and contributors explore questions of personhood and citizenship through language land labor and embodiment By admitting to these tensions and ambivalences the editors set the pace and tempo of powerfully argued essays that engage with the various ways that K naka Maoli and the influx of differentially racialized settlers continue to shift the social political and cultural terrains of the Hawaiian Islands over time

Perfumes Luca Turin, Tania Sanchez, 2010-08-06 I've long wished perfumery to be taken seriously as an art and for scent critics to be as fierce as opera critics and for the wearers of certain fragrances to be hissed in public while others are cheered This year has brought Perfumes The Guide by Luca Turin and Tania Sanchez which I breathed in rather than read in one delighted gulp Hilary Mantel Guardian Perfumes The Guide is the culmination of Turin's lifelong obsession and rare scientific flair and Sanchez's stylish and devoted blogging about every scent that she's ever loved and loathed Together they make a fine and utterly persuasive argument for the unrecognised craft of perfume making Perfume writing has certainly never been this honest compelling or downright entertaining

Gerstner, 2023-03-21 Discovering the queer auteur and their seductive cinematic delights and possibilities How do we identify the queer auteur and their queer imaginings Is it possible to account for such a figure when the very terms queer and auteur invoke aesthetic surprises and disorientations disconcerting ironies and paradoxes and biographical deceits and ambiguities In eighteen eloquent chapters David A Gerstner traces a history of ideas that spotlight an ever shifting terrain associated with auteur theory and in particular queer auteur theory Engaging with the likes of Oscar Wilde Walter Benjamin James Baldwin Jean Louis Baudry Linda Nochlin Jane

Gallop C el Keegan Luce Irigaray and other prominent critical thinkers Gerstner contemplates how the queer auteur in film theory might open us to the work of desire Queer Imaginings argues for a queer auteur in which critical theory is reenabled to reconceptualize the auteur in relation to race gender sexuality and desire Gerstner succinctly defines the contours of a history and the ongoing discussions that situate queer and auteur theories in film studies Ultimately Queer Imaginings is a journey in shared pleasures in which writing for and about cinema makes way for unanticipated cinematic friendships

Beyond the Highland Mist Karen Marie Moning, 2009-11-04 He would sell his warrior soul to possess her An alluring laird He was known throughout the kingdom as Hawk legendary predator of the battlefield and the boudoir No woman could refuse his touch but no woman ever stirred his heart until a vengeful fairy tumbled Adrienne de Simone out of modern day Seattle and into medieval Scotland Captive in a century not her own entirely too bold too outspoken she was an irresistible challenge to the sixteenth century rogue Coerced into a marriage with Hawk Adrienne vowed to keep him at arm s length but his sweet seduction played havoc with her resolve A prisoner in time She had a perfect no on her perfect lips for the notorious laird but Hawk swore she would whisper his name with desire begging for the passion he longed to ignite within her Not even the barriers of time and space would keep him from winning her love Despite her uncertainty about following the promptings of her own passionate heart Adrienne s reservations were no match for Hawk s determination to keep her by his side

Veils of Separation - Finding the Face of Oneness Rabia Erduman, 2012-04-16 Rabia Erduman s Veils of Separation is a journey through the landscapes of the inner life She calls it a fairy tale though it seems to me not so much a fairy tale as an allegory The main character Babla is on a tantric journey to an integrated self By the end of the book all the disparate fragments of the self have merged into a sense of spiritual wholeness The main Truth of this book is that there is no separation only Oneness When we go beyond the physical appearance of the body into subtler energies inside we find that everyone is made of the same substance This is called radiance By contrast separation is created out of fear shame anger and self negating thought patterns we believe to be true These then form the veils that hide our Essence When two people meet their veils often interact rather than their true beings Each of us depending on our upbringing has a different set of veils This story has many characters to show the multitude of ways a person might be split Because everyone is unique there are also countless ways to dissolve the veils of separation and come home Approach this book as a series of doorways to lasting transformation
