Beyond The Heart And Mind:

Confucianism Ming-huei Lee, 2018-03-31 In Confucianism Its Roots and Global Significance English language readers get a rare opportunity to read in a single volume the work of one of Taiwan's most distinguished scholars. Although Ming-huei Lee has published in English before, the corpus of his non-Chinese writings is in German. Readers of this volume will soon discover the hard-mindedness and precision of thinking so associated with German philosophy as they enter into his discussions of Confucianism. As readers progress through this book, they will be constantly reminded that all philosophy should be truly comparative. The work is divided into three sections: Classical Confucianism and Its Modern Reinterpretations, Neo-Confucianism in China and Korea, and Ethics and Politics. These sections evince just some of the range of Ming-huei Lee's thinking as well as his inclusive reach of Confucian philosophy to the whole of East Asia, especially to Korea. In the Ethics and Politics section, readers will get a taste for the return to his own tradition through the lens of Kantian philosophy with his analysis of Confucius and the virtue ethics debate in Confucian philosophical circles. Lee's thinking through Mou Zongsan's interpretation of Confucianism, Zhu Xi and the Huxiang scholars' debate on ren, and the unfolding of the debates over the four buddings and seven feelings in Korea by Yi Toegye and Gi Gubong sets up the subsequent chapters of the book: a reconstruction of Wang Yang-ming's philosophy and theories of democracy and a critique of Jiang Qing's political Confucianism. His work in this book adds a sizable appendage to Confucian scholarship. Moreover, the interrelated ideas and arguments presented in this book are a special contribution to the Confucian project in English-speaking countries across the world. From the Editor's Foreword.

Beyond Enlightenment Osho, 2023-07-06 Enlightenment is the last host. Beyond it, all boundaries disappear; all experiences disappear. Experience comes to its utmost in enlightenment; it is the very peak of all that is beautiful of all that is immortal of all that is blissful, but it is an experience. Beyond enlightenment, there is no experience at all because the experiencer has disappeared. Enlightenment is not only the peak of experience; it is also the finest definition of your being. Beyond it, there is only nothingness; you will not come again to a point which has to be transcended. Experience, the experiencer, enlightenment, all have been left behind. You are part of the tremendous nothingness that is infinite. This is the nothingness out of which the whole existence comes, the womb, and this is the nothingness in which all the existence disappears.

Leading Self & Beyond Raghu Ram Ananthoj, Leading Self beyond is not about the messenger. It's about the message. Everything which had to be said in this world is already said, and there is nothing more to add. The message, as such, is everywhere, all-pervading, and is as alive and fresh as life itself, though nothing unheard of before. It's all about knowing being self. The message is probably as old as the civilization itself. The same message, perhaps, is being propagated by thousands of persons around the world in thousand different ways to help people connect with it. The newness could be in the packaging of the message.
