Beyond the Archipelago Muhammad Haji Salleh, 1995 A collection of 70 poems from one of Malaysia's leading poets that depict longing loneliness modernization and insights in Malaysian culture

The Comparative Study of Traditional Asian Literatures Vladimir Braginsky, 2013-10-11 This book represents the first ever published introduction to the comparative study of traditional Asian literatures embracing three vast literary zones Arab Islamic Indo South East Asian and Sino Far Eastern The aim of the book is to outline the main properties of Asian literatures in the period of reflective traditionalism the early centuries CE to the first half of the 19th century when the creation of a vast body of aesthetically significant works was coupled with the emergence of literary self awareness when the nature of the creative process the poetics and functions of the literary works and the ways of their influence on the reader were thoroughly comprehended and committed to writing for the first time The book is intended for specialists in Asian literatures comparative literature and literary theory and for students of these topics

Reading the Malay World Rick Hosking, 2010 This collection of essays is the culmination of a symposium on the representation of Malays and Malay culture in Singaporean and Malaysian literature in English held in Universiti Putra Malaysia UPM The symposium with the theme Reading the Malay World through Singaporean and Malaysian Texts in English brought together experts from the fields of literature language and linguistics to spotlight the ways in which Malays and Malay culture are captured in the literary imagination of Singaporean and Malaysian writers writing in English The symposium highlighted how Malays and Malay culture are imagined and promoted through literature and also explored Malayness from linguistic and cultural perspectives Issues of concern addressed here include the construction of the Malays in Singaporean and Malaysian literature in English within orientalist or colonialist discourses of the East the influence of English on the ways that Malays and Malay culture are represented how Malay identity is defined and the positioning of the Malays in literary imaginations and social realities

Collected Poems Alan Brownjohn, 2014-08-21 This third edition of Alan Brownjohn's Collected Poems was first published by the Enitharmon Press in 2006 It adds over 140 poems to the second which appeared in 1988 This volume comprises all of the work that Brownjohn wishes to retain from his twelve individual collections published between 1954 and 2004 it also incorporates a number of newer uncollected poems Wide ranging in theme and displaying an impressive mastery of form this body of writing firmly establishes Alan Brownjohn's achievement as central to the English poetry of the last half century Wonderfully rich and well produced Brownjohn is a marvellously skilful comedian he is a social poet in the sense that if people in the future want to know what many lives were like in the second half of the 20th century they should read Alan Brownjohn observant troubled humane scrupulous wry funny Anthony Thwaite Guardian

Dance of Life Craig Lockard, 1998-04-01 The rock era is over according to one pop music expert Another laments that rock music is metamorphosed into the musical wallpaper of ten thousand lifts hotel foyers shopping centers airport lounges and television advertisements that await us in the 1990s

Whatever its current role and significance in Anglo American society popular music has been and remains a tremendous social and cultural force in many parts of the world This book explores the connections between popular music genres and politics in Southeast Asia with particular emphasis on Indonesia the Philippines Thailand Malaysia and Singapore

Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2020-05-15 This collection of essays brings together work by some of the most internationally acclaimed critics of Malaysian literature in English from different parts of the world including Australia Canada Japan Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the works of major writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on thematic and stylistic trends The book pays particular attention to issues such as gender ethnicity nationalism multiculturalism diaspora hybridity and transnationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English first introduced by the colonisers has experienced a mixed fate of ups and downs in the post independence period due to the changing and sometimes strikingly different policies adopted by the government The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial literatures Your Madness, Not Mine Juliana Makuchi

Abbenyi-Nfah, 1999-02-28 Women's writing in Cameroon has so far been dominated by Francophone writers The short stories in this collection represent the yearnings and vision of an Anglophone woman who writes both as a Cameroonian and as a woman whose life has been shaped by the minority status her people occupy within the nation state The stories in Your Madness Not Mine are about postcolonial Cameroon but especially about Cameroonian women who probe their day to day experiences of survival and empowerment as they deal with gender oppression from patriarchal expectations to the malaise of maldevelopment unemployment and the attraction of the West for young Cameroonians Makuchi has given us powerful portraits of the people of postcolonial Africa in the so called global village who too often go unseen and unheard The

Many Faces of Sandinista Democracy Katherine Hoyt, 1997 Taking power in Nicaragua in 1979 as a revolutionary party the Sandinista National Liberation Front FSLN was willing to put its fate in the hands of the Nicaraguan people twice in 1984 and 1990 The party wrote a democratic constitution and then remarkably accepted the decision of the majority by relinquishing power upon its defeat in the 1990 election The Many Faces of Sandinista Democracy explores the conflicts involving different visions of political and economic democracy as well as new radical thought on participatory democracy The latter addresses the problems popular organizations encountered as they moved from subservience to the FSLN in the 1980s to the liberating but disorientating electoral defeat of 1990 Up until the moment of defeat the Sandinistas saw themselves as the true vanguard of the Nicaraguan people able to submit themselves to free elections because they felt they truly represented the general will of the people Dr Hoyt brings to an international audience for the first time a study of the ideas of several Nicaraguan thinkers She examines the conflicts surrounding the development of ideas within the FSLN as well as the strengths and weaknesses of its rare combination of democratic and vanguard principles The Moral Economy of the State William A. Munro, 1998 The Moral Economy of the State examines state formation in Zimbabwe from the colonial period through the first decade of independence Drawing on the works of Gramsci E P Thompson and James Scott William Munro develops a theory of moral economy that explores negotiations between rural citizens and state agents over legitimate state incursions in social life This analysis demonstrates how states try to shape the meanings of citizenship for agrarian populations by redefining conceptions of the public good property rights and community membership The book s focus on the moral economy of the state offers a refreshing perspective on the difficulties experienced by postcolonial African states in building stronger state and rural institutions English Literatures in International Contexts Heinz Antor, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2000
