Atlantic Crossing in the Wake of Frederick Douglass Mark Leone, 2017-03-06 Atlantic Crossings in the Wake of Frederick Douglass takes its bearings from the Maryland born former slave Frederick Douglass's 1845 sojourn in Ireland and Britain a voyage that is understood in editors Mark P Leone and Lee M Jenkins collection as paradigmatic of the crossings between American African American and Irish historical experience and culture with which the collection as a whole is concerned In crossing the Atlantic Douglass also completed his journey from slavery to freedom and from political and cultural marginality into subjective and creative autonomy Atlantic Crossings traces the stages of that journey in chapters on literature archaeology and spatial culture that consider both roots and routes landscapes of New World slavery subordination and state sponsored surveillance and narratives of resistance liberation and intercultural exchange generated by transatlantic connectivities and the transnational transfer of ideas Contributors Lee M Jenkins Mark P Leone Katie Ahern Miranda Corcoran Ann Coughlan Kathryn H Deeley Adam Fracchia Mary Furlong Minkoff Tracy H Jenkins Dan O'Brien Eoin O'Callaghan Elizabeth Pruitt Benjamin A Skolnik and Stefan Woehlke

Beyond Walls: Re-inventing the Canada-United States Borderlands Victor Konrad, Heather Nicol, 2016-12-05 September 11 2001 marked the beginning of a new era of security imperatives for many countries The border between Canada and the United States suddenly emerged from relative obscurity to become a focus of constant attention by media federal and state provincial governments on both sides of the boundary and the public at large This book provides a comprehensive examination of the Canada USA border in its 21st century form placing it within the context of border and borderlands theory globalization and the changing geopolitical dialogue It argues that this border has been reinvented as a state of the art technology steeped crossing system while the image of the border has been engineered to appear consistent with the friendly border of the past It shows how a border can evolve to a heightened level of security and yet continue to function well sustaining the massive flow of trade It argues whether in doing so the US Canada border offers a model for future borderlands Although this model is still evolving and still aspires toward better management practices the template may prove useful not only for North America but also in conflict border zones as well as the meshed border regions of the EU Africa s artificial line boundaries and other global situations

Abolitionist Places Martha Schoolman, Jared Hickman, 2014-10-20 From David Brion Davis s The Problem of Slavery in the Age of Revolution to Paul Gilroy s The Black Atlantic some of the most influential conceptualizations of the Atlantic World have taken the movements of individuals and transnational organizations working to advocate the abolition of slavery as their material basis This unique interdisciplinary collection of essays provides diverse new approaches to examining the abolitionist Atlantic With contributions from an international roster of historians literary scholars and specialists in the history of art this book provides case studies in the connections between abolitionism and material spatial practice in literature theory history and memory This volume covers a wide range of topics and themes including the circum Atlantic itineraries of abolitionist artists and activists precise locations such as Paris and Chatham Ontario where abolitionists congregated to speculate over the future of and hatch emigration plans to sites in Africa Latin America and the Caribbean and the reimagining of abolitionist places in twentieth and twenty first century literature and public art This book was originally published as a special issue of Atlantic Studies

Love Across the Atlantic Brickman Barbara Jane Brickman, 2020-02-14 Winston Churchill famously described the political alliance between the US and UK as a special relationship but throughout the cultural history of these two countries there have existed transatlantic special relationships of another kind affairs between British and American citizens who have fallen in love with one another but often too with the idea l of that other place across the ocean From romantic novelist Elinor Glyn in the 1920s to Prince Harry and Meghan Markle today this collection examines some of the history contemporary manifestations and enduring appeal of US UK romance across popular culture Looking at both historical and contemporary case studies drawn from across film television music literature news and politics this is a timely intervention into the popular romantic discourse of US UK relations at a critical and transitional moment in the ongoing viability of the special relationship

Boundaries and History in Africa Willibroad Dze-Ngwa, E. S. D. Fomin, Daniel Abwa, Albert-Pascal Temgoua, 2013 This book comprises 26 well researched essays in honour of Professor Verkijika G Fanson who retired in 2011 after over 36 years of distinguished service at universities in Cameroon Contributors include colleagues former students and close collaborators in Cameroon and beyond Contributions cover a wide range of issues related to the contested histories politics and practices of boundaries and frontiers in Africa These are themes on which Fanzo has researched published and taught extensively and earned international recognition as a leading scholar The book explores inter alia indigenous and endogenous practices of boundary making in Africa as well as colonial and contemporary traditions practices and conflicts on and around frontiers In particular focus are disputed colonial boundaries between Cameroon and its neighbours Issues of intra and inter disciplinary frontiers politics and cultures are also addressed The volume is crowned by a farewell valedictory lecture by Fanzo Like Fanzo and his rich repertoire of publications this bumper harvest of essays is without doubt truly immortalising

Cities Beyond Borders Nicolas Kenny, Rebecca Madgin, 2016-05-23 Drawing on a body of research covering primarily Europe and the Americas but stretching also to Asia and Africa from the mid eighteenth century to the present this book explores the methodological and heuristic implications of studying cities in relation to one another Moving fluidly between comparative and transnational methods as well as across regional and national lines the contributors to this volume demonstrate the necessity of this broader view in assessing not just the fundamentals of urban life the way cities are occupied and organised on a daily basis but also the urban mindscape the way cities are imagined and represented In doing so the volume provides valuable insights into the advantages and limitations of using multiple cities to form historical inquiries
