Legrenzi, 2015-07-31 The Gulf Cooperation Council GCC made up of Saudi Arabia Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar and the United Arab Emirates UAE is one of the most resilient sub regional organizations in the world and the most successful in the Arab world it has been the forum through which much security cooperation in this volatile sub region has taken place as well as the main representative for the UAE's territorial dispute with Iran over the Abu Musa and Tunbs islands the organization aims to enhance defence cooperation between its member states it also has significant potential to foster economic integration and to present an alternative form of leverage over the international oil markets Very little is known however about how the organization really works how decisions are actually taken as opposed to how this process is formally articulated in its charter and what the GCC's real impact on member states the Gulf and international relations is Drawing on cutting edge ir theoretical perspectives as well as unique firsthand access to GCC decision makers Matteo Legrenzi explains the mechanisms of Gulf cooperation and its limitations in the context of economic globalization diplomatic regionalization and the rise of Iran Combining historical context primary source investigations and theoretical analysis this is a comprehensive guide to the GCC and an indispensable resource for anyone concerned with the Gulf and the Middle East exploitation of Middle East oil an international journalist tells a largely unknown story rich in drama conflict and comic interludes Illustrations Gulf Security in the Twenty-First Century David E. Long, Christian Koch, 1998-08-27 The connection between regional instability and the preservation of global security is nowhere more sensitive than in the Gulf Events since the 1990 1991 Gulf War continue to confirm the fragile interaction among states in the region and their susceptibility to external forces Gulf Security in the Twenty First Century brings together some of the foremost area experts to explore the most pressing issues including military threats to the region obstacles to economic development and socioeconomic harmonization and challenges to political stability In particular the work examines Iran's often enigmatic foreign policy vis-à-vis its Gulf neighbors Iraq's resurgent military threat choices and constraints confronting US Middle East policy and Europe's inability to identify and pursue a united policy to safeguard its economic interests in the area These topics are further illuminated with an analysis of Russia's historical attempt at balancing foreign policy objectives in the Gulf with its enduring interests in Central Asia The potentially explosive issues of religious radicalism and the challenges of democratic pluralism are discussed in an effort to ascertain the potential of political Islam to disturb or enhance regional security Similarly the problems inhibiting the settlement of territorial disputes in and around the Gulf are brought into focus to illustrate lingering historical tensions among neighboring states To round out the book's topical coverage several contributors shed light on the region's unfettered dependence on foreign labor growing demographic pressures associated social and economic transformations and challenges to responsive public policy
