Beyond Time:

A Love Beyond Time, in a World on a Timer Michael Centuori, 2022-10-14 He had to save the world to redeem his sins But the world had already ended So he lurched along through his pointless corporeal existence awaiting an overdue reunion with his perished family Bereft of purpose in a man made apocalypse Nobl worked in the most suicidal profession one known to expedite a longed for reunion with his wife and daughter They called it couriering the simple act of escorting people usually climate refugees escaping famine and drought from one place to another Desperate to leverage favor with the fates he eschewed all material attachments and compensation for his deeds As he dawdled over the years playing at living while his mind was lost in the afterlife a creeping and overwhelming feeling of failure to fulfill his destiny with his family took hold The contagion of this intractable depression drove him toward suicide On his way to die he happens upon a benign unremarkable young woman who unknowingly holds the key to saving a once thought to be unstoppable global warming feedback loop She possesses the one thing humanity needs to repent for its ancestors ecocide and more important to Nobl the one thing he needs to atone to get back to his family His mind is mired in the afterlife with his loved ones and the black hole pull of such a longing has him losing his earthly sanity more every minute But fate it seems is not finished with him yet Kundalini Yoga

Issues in Contemporary Philosophy of Religion Eugene Thomas Long, 2012-12-06 This collection of original articles written by leading contemporary European and American philosophers of religion is presented in celebration of the publication of the fiftieth volume of the International Journal for Philosophy of Religion Following the Editor's Introduction John Macquarrie Adriaan Peperzak and Hent de Vries take up central themes in continental philosophy of religion Macquarrie analyzes postmodernism and its influence in philosophy and theology Peperzak argues for a form of universality different from that of modern philosophy and de Vries analyzes an intrinsic and structural relationship between religion and the media The next three essays discuss issues in analytic philosophy of religion Philip Quinn argues that religious diversity reduces the epistemic status of exclusivism and makes it possible for a religious person to be justified while living within a pluralistic environment William Wainwright plumbs the work of Jonathan Edwards in order to better understand debates concerning freedom determinism and the problem of evil and William Hasker asks whether theological incompatibilism is less inimical to traditional theism than some have supposed Representing the Thomist tradition Fergus Kerr challenges standard readings of Aquinas on the arguments for the existence of God David Griffin analyzes the contributions of process philosophy to the problem of evil and the relation between science and religion Illustrating comparative approaches Keith Ward argues that the Semitic and Indian traditions have developed a similar concept of God that should be revised in view of post Enlightenment theories of the individual and the historical Keith Yandell explores themes in the Indian metaphysical tradition and considers what account of persons is most in accord with reincarnation and karma doctrines Feminist philosophy of religion is represented in Pamela Anderson s article in which she argues for a gender sensitive and more inclusive approach to the craving for infinitude

Narrative Ontology Axel Hutter, 2021-11-18 This book is a critical inquiry into three ideas that have been at the heart of philosophical reflection since time immemorial freedom God and immortality Their inherent connection has disappeared from our thought We barely pay attention to the latter two ideas and the notion of freedom is used so loosely today that it has become vacuous Axel Hutter s book seeks to remind philosophy of its distinct task only in understanding itself as human self knowledge that articulates itself in these three ideas will philosophy do justice to its own concept In developing this line of argument Hutter finds an ally in Thomas Mann whose novel Joseph and His Brothers has more to say about freedom God and immortality than most contemporary philosophy does Through his reading of Mann s novel Hutter explores these three ideas in a distinctive way He brings out the intimate connection between philosophical self knowledge and narrative form Mann s novel gives expression to the depth of human self understanding and thus demands a genuinely philosophical interpretation In turn philosophical concepts are freed from abstractness by resonating with the novel s motifs and its rich language Narrative Ontology is both a highly original work of philosophy and a vigorous defence of humanism It brings together philosophy and literature in a creative way it will be of great interest to students and scholars in philosophy literature and the humanities in general C.S. Peirce and the Nested Continua Model of Religious Interpretation Gary Slater,2015-11-26

This study develops resources in the work of Charles S Peirce 1839 1914 for the purposes of contemporary philosophy It contextualizes Peirce s prevailing influences and provides greater context in relation to the currents of nineteenth century thought Dr Gary Slater articulates a nested continua model for theological interpretation which is indebted to Peirce s creation of Existential Graphs a system of diagrams designed to provide visual representation of the process of human reasoning He investigates how the model can be applied by looking at recent debates in historiography He deals respectively with Peter Ochs and Robert C Neville as contemporary manifestations of Peircean philosophical theology This work concludes with an assessment of the model s theological implications
