Reith,2021-12-28 Grade Level 5 12 Reading Level 3 4 What do the human body and the automobile have in common Both need tune ups to work efficiently Just as a car

needs oil and gasoline to make the parts go the human body needs exercise Exercise makes us feel better improves our strength and coordination increases oxygen flow and helps to keep us healthy The human body just like a car is made to move When it doesn't things start to break down This easy to use book is a great way to provide students with up to date information on the principles of exercise while simultaneously improving their reading comprehension skills Relevant high interest activities follow each reading selection and challenge students to read for details make inferences find the main idea find facts summarize data build vocabulary draw conclusions restate information and make decisions

Fitness Through Aerobics Jan Galen Bishop, 1995 The authors use an extended metaphor to serve up a little book with a big message about two essentials of the Christian life What do bookends have to do with the Christian life They are a metaphor that Jerry Bridges has developed over the years and which he and coauthor Bob Bevington flesh out in this small volume The two bookends explain not only how we as sinners can be made acceptable to a holy God but also we can find the power to change They are thus essential for the Christian life In a unique book that should garner the attention of a wide range of readers the authors use their extended metaphor to help readers answer questions like How can I overcome persistent guilt How can I deal with the pressure to measure up Where can I find the motivation it takes to grow How can I live the Christian life with both my head and my heart How can I be sure God loves me How can I change in an authentic and lasting way So what are the bookends of the Christian life Christ's righteousness as it is transferred to dependent believers and the Holy Spirit's power as it enables their transformation In continuing their goal to re-center the church at large onto the historic gospel of Jesus Christ Bridges and Bevington have served up this little book with a big message so that believers and seekers alike can understand these two keys to a genuine Christian life

Fitness and Exercise Sourcebook Dan R. Harris, 1996 Physical fitness is often defined as the ability to perform typical activities and chores such as raking leaves or cleaning windows without getting fatigued Achieving this level of fitness requires a regimen of moderate aerobic activity such as walking cycling swimming or jogging for only 20 to 30 minutes 3 or 4 days a week Currently only one fourth of the U.S. population is engaged in light to moderate physical activity This statistic is alarming since research has shown that physical activity is linked to reducing risk of chronic diseases such as diabetes cancer and heart disease now the leading causes of death in the United States The Fitness and Exercise Sourcebook provides the layperson with the latest information regarding physical activity and its benefits to healthy living
