Arab Revival:

Arab Awakening and Islamic Revival Martin Kramer, 2017-07-05 Over the past decade the political ground beneath the Middle East has shifted Arab nationalism the political orthodoxy for most of this century has lost its grip on the imagination and allegiance of a new generation At the same time Islam as an ideology has spread across the region and Islamists bid to capture the center of politics Most Western scholars and experts once hailed the redemptive power of Arabism Arab Awakening and Islamic Revival is a critical assessment of the contradictions of Arab nationalism and Islamic fundamentalism and the misrepresentation of both in the West The first part of the book argues that Arab nationalism the so called Arab awakening bore within it the seeds of its own failure Arabism as an idea drew upon foreign sources and resources Even as it claimed to liberate the Arabs from imperialism it deepened intellectual dependence upon the West s own romanticism and radicalism Ultimately Arab nationalism became a force of oppression rather than liberation and a mirror image of the imperialism it defied Kramer s essays together form the only chronological telling and the at fully documented postmortem of Arabism The second part of the book examines the similar failings of Islamism whose ideas are Islamic reworkings of Western ideological radicalism Its effect has been to give new life to old rationales for oppression authoritarianism and sectarian division Arab Awakening and Islamic Revival provides an alternative view of a century of Middle Eastern history As the region moves fitfully past ideology Kramer s perspective is more compelling than at any time in the past in Western academe no less than among many in the Middle This book will be of interest to sociologists political scientists economists and Middle East specialists

The Arab Revival Francesco Gabrieli, 1961 The Emergence of the Arab Movements Eliezer Tauber, 2013-02-01 Published in the year 1993 The Emergence of the Arab Movements is a valuable contribution to the field of Middle Eastern Studies

Redefining the Egyptian Nation, 1930-1945 Israel Gershoni, I. Gershoni, James P. Jankowski, 2002-08-08 The authors examine the emergence of nationalism among the Egyptian middle class during the 1930s and 1940s and its growing awareness of an Arab and Muslim identity Previously Egypt did not define itself in these terms but adopted a territorial and isolationist outlook It is the revolutionary transformation in Egyptian self understanding which took place during this period that provides the focus of this study The authors demonstrate how the growth of an urban middle class combined with economic and political failures in the 1930s eroded the foundations of the earlier order Alongside domestic events the momentum of Arabism abroad and the impact of events in Palestine necessitated Egyptian regional involvement Egypt s present position as a major player in Arab Muslim and Third World affairs has its roots in the fundamental transition of Egyptian national identity at this time

Arab Awakening and Islamic Revival Thomas Molnar, 2017-07-05 Over the past decade the political ground beneath the Middle East has shifted Arab nationalism the political orthodoxy for most of this century has lost its grip on the imagination and allegiance of a new generation At the same time Islam as an ideology has spread across the region and Islamists bid to capture the center of politics Most Western scholars and experts once hailed the redemptive power of Arabism Arab Awakening and Islamic Revival is a critical assessment of the contradictions of Arab nationalism and Islamic fundamentalism and the misrepresentation of both in the West The first part of the book argues that Arab nationalism the so called Arab awakening bore within it the seeds of its own failure Arabism as an idea drew upon foreign sources and resources Even as it claimed to liberate the Arabs from imperialism it deepened intellectual dependence upon the West s own romanticism and radicalism Ultimately Arab nationalism became a force of oppression rather than liberation and a mirror image of the imperialism it defied Kramer s essays together form the only chronological telling and the at fully documented postmortem of Arabism The second part of the book examines the similar failings of Islamism whose ideas are Islamic reworkings of Western ideological radicalism Its effect has been to give new life to old rationales for oppression authoritarianism and sectarian division Arab Awakening and Islamic Revival provides an alternative view of a century of Middle Eastern history As the region moves fitfully past ideology Kramer s perspective is more compelling than at any time in the past in Western academe no less than among many in the Middle This book will be of interest to sociologists political scientists economists and Middle East specialists An Introduction to the History of Modern Arabic Literature in Egypt J. Cairo Drawing on memoirs of relatives and colleagues and on archival material Itzhak Weismann demonstrates Kawakibi's originality and assesses his impact on the evolution of Islamic political thought and the course of Arab nationalism during the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries Arab Civilization: Challenges and Responses George Nicholas Atiyeh, Ibrahim M. Oweiss, 1988-01-01 This book discusses Arab history law philosophy politics and literature analyzing the challenges and responses aroused by the interaction between Western culture and the ancient and modern Arab cultures It offers a wealth of information on the forces that have shaped Arab civilization and on several of the major figures who have contributed to its development Some of the outstanding contributions include a comprehensive study of Dr Zurayk as the advocate of rationalism in modern Arab thought by Hani A Faris a sober but challenging look at the use of Islamic history in our time by Muhsin Mahdi an analysis of the expression of historicity in the Koran by Jacques Berque an explanation of the concept of equity in Islamic law by Majid Khadduri and the revelation of a Mamluk Magna Carta by Aziz Sourial Atiya The Arab Awakening: The Story Of The Arab National Movement George Antonius, 2015-11-06 This remarkable book on a complex and controversial subject is widely regarded as the best full account of the rise of the Arab national movement After several years of travel and research in all parts of the Arab world the author managed to gain access to all the relevant material necessary to the writing of a book such as this much of the material having been unavailable to other writers on the subject The fruits of Mr Antonius research have been embodied in this unique story of the origins and development of the national movement from its earliest beginnings in the nineteenth century down to the post World War I era In addition to the narrative account and assessments of military and political leaders including Lawrence of Arabia the book contains a set of documents of fundamental importance to the history of the Arab revival Never has the story of the origin and growth of the Arab national movement been told with such brilliance or with such a wealth of detail The Nation A good book written by a scholar an expert on the subject and a resident in the country A very excellent and extremely able book The Observer London The whole of this brilliantly written book moves at the same plane of objective and critical scholarship Daily Telegraph London Islamic Reform and Arab Nationalism Amal N. Ghazal, 2010-04-08 Bridging African and Arab histories this book examines the relationship between Islam nationalism and the evolution of identity politics from late 19th Century to World War II It provides a cross national cross regional analysis of religious reform nationalism anti colonialism from Zanzibar to Oman North Africa and the Middle East This book widens the scope of modern Arab history by integrating Omani rule in Zanzibar in the historiography of Arab nationalism and Islamic reform It examines the intellectual and political ties and networks between Zanzibar Oman Algeria Egypt Istanbul and the Levant and the ways those links shaped the politics of identity of the Omani elite in Zanzibar Out of these connections emerges an Omani intelligentsia strongly tied to the Arab cultural nahda and to movements of Islamic reform pan Islamism and pan Arabism The book examines Zanzibari nationalism as formulated by the Omani intelligentsia through the prism of these pan Islamic connections and in the light of Omani responses to British policies in Zanzibar The author sheds light on Ibadism an overlooked sect of Islam and its modern intellectual history and the role of the Omani elite in bridging Ibadism with pan Islamism and pan Arabism Although much has been written about nationalism in the Arab world this is the first book to discuss nationalism in Zanzibar in the wider context of religious reform and nationalism in the Arab world and the first to offer a new framework of analysis to the study of pan Islamic and pan Arab movements and nationalism
