Arabian Nightmare:

The Arabian Nightmare Robert Irwin, 2019-05-15 A cult classic that combines the genres of travelogue fable dream narrative novel and confessional into one beguiling whole Publishers Weekly The hero and guiding force of this epic fantasy is an insomniac young man who unable to sleep guides the reader through the narrow streets of Cairo a mysterious city full of deceit and trickery He narrates a complex tangle of dreams and imaginings that describe an atmosphere constantly shifting between sumptuously learned experiences erotic adventure and dry humor The result is a thought provoking puzzle box of sex philosophy and theology reminiscent of Italo Calvino and Umberto Eco Deft and lovely The smooth steely grip of Irwin s story telling genius is a joy to read The Washington Post The Arabian Nightmare is a conceit worthy of Borges The New York Times Irwin s fascination for inner perception helped along with a delight in Scheherazadian frames and exotic lore makes for quite a rich experience a strangely playful construct that like an intricate Chinese box delights with each unexpected combination and hidden drawer Kirkus Reviews

The Silk Road of Adaptation Dr Laurence Raw, 2013-09-18 This anthology of cutting edge essays on adaptation studies adopts the metaphor of the Silk Road an historical site for transcultural as well as transnational exchange The Silk Road of Adaptation puts forward the idea of adaptation as a continuous process in which individuals continually have to adjust themselves to new material we should not only look at the ways in which texts have been transformed but the ways in which readers audiences and critics have responded to them at different points in time and space Adaptation is a psychological as well as a formal process only by coming to terms with others can individuals address issues of human rights or examine themselves and their existing beliefs The Silk Road of Adaptation stresses this point through a series of essays written by representatives of different disciplines film studies history literature communication studies and English as a foreign language Contributors include established names in the field of adaptation studies as well as newer names who together show how the act of adaptation should be approached as a transmedial as well as a transnational act assuming equal significance in the political and diplomatic as well as the literary and cinematic spheres Cairo Andrew Beattie, 2005 Cairo is The largest metropolis in Africa since the Middle Ages it was in Ibn Battutah's words the mother of cities With a present day population of around eighteen million this sprawling metropolis is home to one thousand new migrants every day drawn to the seething intensity of a modern cosmopolitan capital that blends together the cultures of the Middle East and Europe The fabled city on the banks of the River Nile once home to pharaohs and emperors now forms a focal point of the Islamic faith and of the Arab world Andrew Beattie explores the turbulent past and vibrant present of this city where the enduring legacies of the ancient Egyptians the early Coptic Church British colonial rule and the modernist zeal of the post independence era have all left their mark

Starcombing David Langford, 2009-05-01 Starcombing contains eighty five newly collected pieces of David Langford's witty commentary on the SF fantasy scene columns articles reviews essays even a few short short stories from the famous Futures page in Nature Compulsive reading crammed with insights and laughs

Look at the Evidence John Clute, 2016-11-24 For more than 50 years John Clute has been reviewing science fiction and fantasy Look at the Evidence is a collection of reviews from a wide variety of sources including Interzone the New York Review of Science Fiction and Science Fiction Weekly about the most significant literatures of the twenty first century science fiction fantasy and horror the literatures Clute argues should be recognized as the central modes of fantastika in our times It covers the period between 1987 and 1992

The Annotated Arabian Nights Paulo Lemos Horta, 2021-11-16 A new electric new translation Each page is adorned with illustrations and photographs from other translations and adaptations of the tales as well as a wonderfully detailed cascade of notes that illuminate the stories and their settings The most striking feature of the Arabic tales is their shifting registers prose rhymed prose poetry and Seale captures the movement between them beautifully Yasmine Al Sayyad New Yorker A magnificent and richly illustrated volume with a groundbreaking translation framed by new commentary and hundreds of images of the most famous story collection of all time A cornerstone of world literature and a monument to the power of storytelling the Arabian Nights has inspired countless authors from Charles Dickens and Edgar Allan Poe to Naguib Mahfouz Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter Now in this lavishly designed and illustrated edition of The Annotated Arabian Nights the acclaimed literary historian Paulo Lemos Horta and the brilliant poet and translator Yasmine Seale present a splendid new selection of tales from the Nights featuring treasured original stories as well as later additions including Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp and Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves and definitively bringing the Nights out of Victorian antiquarianism and into the twenty first century For centuries readers have been haunted by the homicidal King Shahriyar thrilled by gripping tales of Sinbad's seafaring adventures and held utterly exquisitely captive by Shahrazad's stories of passionate romances and otherworldly escapades Yet for too long the English speaking world has relied on dated translations by Richard Burton Edward Lane and other nineteenth century adventurers Seale's distinctly contemporary and lyrical translations break decisively with this masculine dynasty finally stripping away the deliberate exoticism of Orientalist renderings while reclaiming the vitality and delight of the stories as she works with equal skill in both Arabic and French

Included within are famous tales from The Story of Sinbad the Sailor to The Story of the Fisherman and the Jinni as well as lesser known stories such as The Story of Dalila the Crafty in which the cunning heroine takes readers into the everyday life of merchants and shopkeepers in a crowded metropolis and The Story of the Merchant and the Jinni an example of a ransom frame tale in which stories are exchanged to save a life Grounded in the latest scholarship The Annotated Arabian Nights also incorporates the Hanna Diyab stories for centuries seen as French forgeries but now acknowledged largely as a result of Horta's pathbreaking research as being firmly rooted in the Arabic narrative tradition Horta not only takes us into the astonishing twists and turns of the stories evolution He also offers comprehensive notes on just about everything readers need to know to appreciate the tales in context and guides us through the origins of ghouls jinn and other supernatural elements that have always drawn in and delighted readers Beautifully illustrated throughout with art from Europe and the Arab and Persian world the latter often ignored in English language editions The Annotated Arabian Nights expands the visual dimensions of the stories revealing how the Nights have always been and still are in dialogue with fine artists With a poignant autobiographical foreword from best selling novelist Omar El Akkad and an illuminating afterword on the Middle Eastern roots of Hanna Diyab's tales from noted scholar Robert Irwin Horta and Seale have created a stunning edition of the Arabian Nights that will enchant and inform both devoted and novice readers alike
