Arabian Oasis City The Transformation Of Unayzah:

Arabian Oasis City Soraya Altorki, Donald P. Cole, 1989-07-01 Vast social change has occurred in the Middle East since the oil boom of the mid 1970s As the first anthropological study of an urban community in Saudi Arabia since that oil boom Arabian Oasis City is also the first to document those changes Based on extensive interviews and participant observation with both men and women the authors record and analyze the transformation that has occurred in this ancient oasis city throughout the twentieth century the creation of the present Saudi Arabian state and of a new national economy based on the export of oil and the economic boom brought about by the dramatic increases in the price of oil following the October 1973 Arab Israeli War In addition the authors reveal the changes brought about by the fall in the price of oil beginning in 1982 and analyze the problems confronting Unayzah in its aftermath By demonstrating that the area was not exclusively dominated by tribalism and Bedouin nomads this empirical case study destroys stereotypical views about Saudi Arabia Indeed it proves the existence prior to the coming of the modern Saudi Arabian state of surplus agricultural and craft production and the full development of local regional and long distance trade networks It shows that women although veiled played active roles in work outside the household The social impact of change over the years is however profound especially the gradual replacement of the extended family by the nuclear family changing patterns of husband wife relationships the impact of self earned income on the status of women and the emergence of a new middle class of employees and entrepreneurs Because of the high degree of gender segregation in this area of research Altorki and Cole give us a fortunate collaboration between a Saudi Arabian female scholar and an American male scholar experienced in research in the Middle East

Arabian Oasis City Soraya Altorki, Arabian Oasis City Soraya Altorki, Donald P. patterns of husband wife relationships the impact of self earned income on the status of women and the emergence of a new middle class of employees and entrepreneurs Because of the high degree of gender segregation in this area of research Altorki and Cole give us a fortunate collaboration between a Saudi Arabian female scholar and an American male scholar experienced in research in the Middle East Bedouin, Settlers, and Holiday-makers Donald Powell Cole, Soraya Altorki, 1998 A new e book edition of the classic study of the radical changes in lifestyle trade agriculture and land use that have taken place on Egypt's northwest coast in the face of a huge influx of Nile Valley settlers and tourists The arid regions impose strict limits upon human existence and activity And yet by respecting those limits the flourishing and stable culture of these regions has for centuries been sustained In the late twentieth century however forces such as modernization globalization and the politics and economics of nations became so great that major changes in the old ways Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph, 2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph's volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship A Most Masculine State Madawi Al-Rasheed, 2013-03-15 This book goes beyond conventional tropes describing women in Saudi Arabia to probe the historical political and religious forces thwarting their emancipation All Things Arabia, 2020-11-16 By employing the innovative lenses of thing theory and material culture studies this collection brings together essays focused on the role played by Arabia's things from cultural objects to commodities to historical and ethnographic artifacts to imaginary things in creating an Arabian identity over time The Arabian identity that we convey here comprises both a fabulous Arabia that has haunted the European imagination for the past three hundred years and a real Arabia that has had its unique history culture and traditions outside the Orientalized narratives of the West All Things Arabia aims to dispel existing stereotypes and to stimulate new thinking about an area whose patterns of trade and cosmopolitanism have pollinated the world with lasting myths knowledge and things of beauty Contributors include Ileana Baird Marie Claire
