

A cable-stayed bridge is shown against a sunset sky. The bridge's dark structure, including its tall pylons and stay cables, is silhouetted against the bright orange and yellow light of the setting sun. The sun is positioned on the right side of the frame, creating a strong lens flare and reflecting its light on the calm water in the foreground. The sky transitions from a deep orange near the horizon to a lighter, hazy pink and purple at the top. The bridge's deck and railings extend from the left towards the right, receding into the distance.

There was before you and there was during you. For some reason, I never thought there would be an after you.
