Laurie Ruth Johnson

Beginnlosigkeit Reflexionen Ueber Fleck Und Linie:

The Play Within the Play Gerhard Fischer, Bernhard Greiner, 2007 The thirty chapters of this innovative international study are all devoted to the topic of the play within the play The authors explore the wide range of aesthetic literary theoretical and philosophical issues associated with this rhetorical device not only in terms of its original meta theatrical setting from the baroque idea of a theatrum mundi onward to contemporary examples of postmodern self referential dramaturgy but also with regard to a variety of different generic applications e g in narrative fiction musical theatre and film The authors internationally recognized specialists in their respective fields draw on recent debates in such areas as postcolonial studies game and systems theories media and performance studies to analyze the specific qualities and characteristics of the play within the play as ultimate affirmation of the self the Hamlet paradigm as a self reflective agency of meta theatrical discourse and as a vehicle of intermedial and intercultural transformation The challenging study with its underlying premise of play as a key feature of cultural anthropology and human creativity breaks new ground by placing the play within the play at the centre of a number of intersecting scholarly discourses on areas of topical concern to scholars in the humanities

The Art of Recollection in Jena Romanticism Laurie Ruth Johnson, 2015-02-06 This exploration of Romantic depictions of memory as a faculty of body as well as of mind analyzes representations of remembrance in Jena Romantic texts When these texts pose questions about memory's employment and depiction in art about the aestheticization of recollection they reveal serious doubt about the explanatory ability of the philosophical psychological and aesthetic discourses against which Romantic and modern thought is constructed

German Memory Contests Anne Fuchs, Mary Cosgrove, Georg Grote, 2006 Since unification in 1990 Germany has seen a boom in the confrontation with memory evident in a sharp increase in novels films autobiographies and other forms of public discourse that engage with the long term effects of National Socialism across generations Taking issue with the concept of Vergangenheitsbewältigung or coming to terms with the Nazi past which after 1945 guided nearly all debate on the topic the contributors to this volume view contemporary German culture through the more dynamic concept of memory contests which sees all forms of memory public or private as ongoing processes of negotiating identity in the present Touching on gender generations memory and postmemory trauma theory ethnicity historiography and family narrative the contributions offer a comprehensive picture of current German memory debates in so doing shedding light on the struggle to construct a German identity mindful of but not wholly defined by the horrors of National Socialism and the Holocaust Contributors Peter

Interrogations of Evolutionism in German Literature 1859-2011 Nicholas Saul, 2021-02-08 Darwin's idea has been called the best idea anyone ever had In Interrogations of Evolutionism in German Literature 1859-2011 Nicholas Saul offers the first representative account of German literary responses to Darwinian evolutionism from Raabe and Jensen via Ernst Jünger and Botho Strauß to Dietmar Dath Often identified with National Socialist ideology and hence notably absent from the public sphere after 1945 Darwinian thought is in fact shown to be distorted through the lens of Social Darwinism and bionationalist organicism As Nicholas Saul shows literature has been the main agent in public discourse for challenging such illiberal presentations and there is a common thread of salvific individualism which leads to the new legitimacy of Darwinian discourse today

Writing-between-Worlds Ottmar Ette, 2016-02-22 This book proposes that there is no better no more complex way to access a community a society an era and its cultures than through literature For millennia literature from a wide variety of geocultural areas has gathered knowledge about life about survival and about living together without either falling into discursive or disciplinary specializations or functioning as a regulatory mechanism for cultural knowledge Literature is able to offer its readers knowledge through direct participation in the form of step by step intellectual and affective experiences Through this ability it can reach and affect audiences across great spatial and temporal distances Literature what different times and cultures have been able to understand as such in a broad sense has always been characterized by its transareal and transcultural origins and effects It is the product of many logics and it teaches us to think polylogically rather than monologically Literature is an experiment in living and living in a state of experimentation About the author Ottmar Ette has been Chair of Romance Literature at the University of Potsdam Germany since 1995 He is Honorary Member of the Modern Language Association of America MLA elected in 2014 member of the Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities elected in 2013 and regular member of the Academia Europaea since 2010

Poetics of Dance Gabriele Brandstetter, 2015-03-11 When it was first published in Germany in 1995 Poetics of Dance was already seen as a path breaking publication the first to explore the relationships between the birth of modern dance new developments in the visual arts and the renewal of literature and drama in the form of avant garde theatrical and movement productions of the early twentieth century Author Gabriele Brandstetter established in this book not only a relation between dance and critical theory but in fact a full interdisciplinary methodology that quickly found foothold with other areas of research within dance studies The book looks at dance at the beginnings of the 20th century the time during which modern dance first began to make its radical departure from the aesthetics of classical ballet Brandstetter traces modern dance's connection to new innovations and trends in visual and
