ABSTRACT

The 140-item associated bibliography provides a guide to current literature and films in the fields of mental health, education, counseling, and related areas. The bibliography contains articles dealing with the application of behavior modification principles to parents, teachers, parents and teachers, special settings for children and youth, and marriage and family counseling. Thirty-three of the items give information on various films in the field of behavior modification, including availability, length, and price of the film. The bibliography also contains an author and subject index. (S)
