spend the rest of her life wrapped up in his warm embrace Noir Fiction and Film Lee Clark Mitchell, 2021 The argument of Noir Fiction and Film is curiously counterintuitive that in a century of hard boiled fiction and detective films characteristics that at first seemed trivial swelled in importance flourishing into crucial aspects of the genre Among these are aimless descriptions of people and places irrelevant to plot along with detectives consisting of little more than sparkling dialogue and flippant attitudes What weaves together such features however seems to be a paradox that a genre rooted in solving a mystery structured around the gathering of clues must do so by misdirecting our attention even withholding information we think we need to generate the suspense we also desire Yet successful noir stories and films enhance that suspense through passing diversions descriptive details and eccentric perspectives rather than depending on the center pieces of plot alone suspected motives or incriminating traces As the greatest practitioners of the genre have realized the how of detective fiction its stylistic detours draws us in more insistently than the what or the who its linear advance And the achievement of recent film noir is to make that how become the tantalizing object of our entire attention shorn of any pretense of reading for the plot immersing us in the diversionary delight that has animated the genre from the beginning

Buddhist Inclusivism Kristin Beise Kiblinger, 2017-07-05 Although Christians have well developed responses to other religions the counterpart scholarship from Buddhists has thus far lagged behind Breaking new ground Buddhist Inclusivism analyzes the currently favored position towards religious others inclusivism in Buddhist traditions Kristin Beise Kiblinger presents examples of inclusivism from a wide range of Buddhist contexts and periods from Pali texts to the Dalai Lama's recent works After constructing and defending a preferred alternative form of Buddhist inclusivism she evaluates the thought of particular contemporary Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Masao Abe in light of her ideal position This book offers a more systematic treatment of Buddhist inclusivism than has yet been provided either by scholars or by Buddhist leaders
