California racetracks to the unforgiving terrain of Baja California Mary didn't just break records she shattered every assumption about what women could achieve She became the first American woman to hold an FIM racing license The first to compete in motocross The first person ever to solo the legendary Baja 500 on a motorcycle But her greatest victory wasn't measured in trophies or finish lines It was the trail she blazed for every woman who would ride after her This is more than a racing story It's about courage resilience and refusing to accept the limits others set for you It's about a shy girl who found her voice in the roar of an engine and her confidence in conquering the impossible If you've ever been told you don't belong somewhere this book is for you Start reading now and discover why Mary McGee's story will inspire you to chase your own impossible dreams
