The Backroom Boys Graeme Sligo, 2013-10-05 The Backroom Boys is the remarkable but little known story of how a varied group of talented intellectuals drafted into the Australian Army in the dark days of 1942 provided high level policy advice to Australia's most senior soldier General Blamey and through him to the Government for the remainder of the war and beyond This band of academics lawyers and New Guinea patrol officers formed a unique military unit the Directorate of Research and Civil Affairs under the command of an eccentric and masterful string puller Alf Conlon The Directorate has been depicted as a haven for underemployed poets or meddlesome soldier politicians Based on wide ranging research this book reveals a fuller and more fascinating picture The fierce conflicts in the wartime bureaucracy between public servants and soldiers in which the Directorate provided critical support to Blamey went to the heart of military command accountability and the profession of arms The Directorate was a pioneer in developing approaches to military government in areas liberated by the combat troops as demonstrated by the Australian Army in New Guinea and Borneo in 1945-46 It is an issue of enduring importance The Directorate established the Australian School of Pacific Administration and had an important role in founding the Australian National University Its influence extended into post war Australia The Backroom Boys emphasises the personality of Colonel Alf Conlon as well as the talented men and women he recruited Above all this book shows how unexpectedly the Australian Army fostered a group of men and women who made a lasting contribution to the development of Australia in the decades after the war

Backroom Boys Francis Spufford, 2010-11-25 A brilliant beautiful account of how British boffins triumphed across the decades in creating everything from computer games to Martian landers The book contains chapters on the Beagle II Elite the 80s computer game the Blue Streak missile Concorde mobile phone technology and the Human Genome Project among others Britain is the only country in the world to have cancelled its space programme just as it put its first rocket into orbit Starting with this forgotten episode Backroom Boys tells the bittersweet story of how one country lost its industrial tradition and got back something else Sad inspiring funny and ultimately triumphant it follows the technologists whose work kept Concorde flying created the computer game conquered the mobile phone business saved the human genome for the human race and who now are sending the Beagle 2 probe to burrow in the cinnamon sands of Mars

Backroom Boys is a vivid love letter to quiet men in pullovers to those whose imaginings take shape not in words but in mild steel and carbon fibre and lines of code Above all it is a celebration of big dreams achieved with slender means

The Backroom Brigade Seetha, 2006 Back in 1993 American Express launched its rupee cards in India It was an operation similar to those it was running in other countries Except for the curious fact that while the quality of the operations seemed to be better than elsewhere the costs were much lower Certain that something was wrong with the figures the companys comptroller visited India and found that the reports were indeed correct That initial discovery would lead shortly after to the decision to locate the companys finance functions for the Asia Pacific region in India The centre was set up in the Mohan Cooperative Industrial Area along Delhis busy Mathura Road a beehive of corporate offices and factories that is still plagued by the standard Indian malaise of power cuts Setting up the centre was a nightmare from dealing with babudom to establishing the all important connectivity but somewhere along the line things began to come together and the centre began to efficiently execute processes that were seen as time consuming and difficult The Amex centre in hindsight might count as the precursor of the BPO revolution that has spawned close to 400 ITES IT enabled services BPO units in the country The sector now employs around 300 000 people ranging from call centre staff selling credit cards to Americans in an American accent to analysts preparing research reports for Wall Street investment bankers and generates an astounding 5 billion Rs 22 500 crore in revenue That figure is to quadruple in the next two years even as piquantly it is now people in the West who complain of loss of jobs as companies route work to India

In The Backroom Brigade How a Few Intrepid Entrepreneurs Brought the World to India Seetha a Delhi based economic journalist tells the story of this entire phenomenon how a group of people combining sophisticated technology with the improvisational skills of a street mechanic changed the way the world looked at India

Backroom Deals in Our Backyards Miranda S. Spivack, 2005 Winner of the Studs and Ida Terkel Prize A groundbreaking look at how ordinary people are fighting back against their local and state governments to keep their communities safe by an award winning journalist Most Americans are likely to encounter the effects of government malfeasance or neglect close to home from their governors mayors town councils school boards police and prosecutors In fact deals shrouded in darkness are regularly made at the state and local levels often the result of closed door discussions between governments and industry without any scrutiny whatsoever from the public Too often as this groundbreaking new work of investigative reporting reveals residents are intentionally kept on the outside struggling to get information about significant issues affecting their communities from car crashes and dirty drinking water to failing safety gear until the backroom deals are done and it s too late to challenge them A work of riveting narrative nonfiction based on years of original reporting Backroom Deals in Our Backyards tells the story of five accidental activists people from across the United States who started questioning why their local and state governments didn't protect them from issues facing their communities and why there was a frightening lack of transparency surrounding the way these issues were resolved. The secret deals, lies and corruption they uncover shake their faith in government but move them to action. For readers of Chain of Title and Superman's Not Coming, Spivack's revealing take on a hidden dimension of American politics will outrage and educate anyone who cares about the forces shaping their own communities.

The Backroom Boy Mandla Mathebula, 2017-04-04. The Backroom Boy opens dramatically in China 1962. Andrew Mlangeni is one of a small select group undergoing military training there. The unannounced visitor is Mao Tse Tung or Chairman Mao as he was known. Chairman of the Communist Party of China. Mlangeni was selected as one of the first ever six members who received military training in China before the formation of Umkhonto we Sizwe. He seems to have been chosen because he was a dedicated, intelligent and dependable operative rather than a leader. Even after his release after 25 years on Robben Island, Mlangeni was not given a senior position in the post-apartheid democratic government. I was always the backroom boy, says Andrew Mlangeni about himself. Andrew Mlangeni is a struggle stalwart, Rivonia Trialist and Robben Island prisoner 467/64 who was next door inmate to Nelson Mandela's acclaimed 466/64 prison number. Released after 26 years of incarceration, he served as Member of Parliament and is Chairman of the ANC's Integrity Commission and Founder of the June and Andrew Mlangeni Foundation. With the passing of Ahmed Kathrada in March 2017, Mlangeni, 91, is one of only two Rivonia Trialists still alive, with Denis Goldberg. While still at school, Andrew Mlangeni joined the Communist Party of South Africa and also the ANC Youth League. These were the organisations that shaped his values. Decades of resourceful activism were to lead to his arrest and life sentence in the Rivonia trial. Mlangeni's lifelong commitment to the struggle for liberation reverberates with other biographies and memoirs of leading figures such as Rusty Bernstein's Memory Against Forgetting and Albie Sachs' We the People: Insights of an Activist Judge. This story of an ANC elder is a well-researched historical record overlaid with intensely personal reflections which intersect with the political narrative. Above all, it is one man's story set in the maelstrom of the liberation struggle. This biographical project has been developed for and published in conjunction with the June and Andrew Mlangeni Foundation.

Japan's Backroom Politics Watanabe Tsuneo, 2013-09-12. Japan's Backroom Politics is the translation of a classic study of the rough and tumble of Japanese politics and conservative party factions in the first two decades of postwar Japan. The original book published in 1967 was written by the preeminent political writer at the time, Watanabe Tsuneo, who later became the controversial owner of the Yomiuri Shimbun. The book was written when a generational change was occurring in Japanese politics after several of the early party leaders had passed away, including his political mentor Ono Bamboku. Comprising ten chapters, including a comprehensive preface on the author, Japan's Backroom Politics discusses in great detail the history of and personalities within the near dozen factions and sub-factions that existed at the time. He introduces the resiliency of factions within the ruling Liberal Democratic Party, noting the role of money, influence, party presidency and the chance at the premiership among other factors which subsequent commentators and scholars have elaborated on Moreover using extensive data and a penetrating analysis Watanabe provides a historical as well as an international comparison of Japanese factions making predictions about the future of Japanese politics The Law Times Reports of Cases Decided in the House of Lords, the Privy Council, the Court of Appeal ... [new Series]. ,1914
