Backcourt Ace:

Backcourt Ace Clair Bee, 2001-07-01 The State University's basketball team is determined to give Coach Corrigan a proper victory send off as he prepares to take a sabbatical leave following the Holiday Invitational. However, the State team even with the nation's top scorer Chip Hilton has trouble and it could mean defeat in the tournament. They have no one tall enough to go up against their opponent's giant pivot men and they have begun the season with three straight losses. The solution seems to present itself when Chip finds seven foot Branch Phillips, a State junior who has transferred from another college. However, Branch is supporting his mother and three sisters and has no time for basketball. But Chip and his friends overcome by pitting ingenuity and teamwork against all obstacles.

Backcourt Ace Clair Bee, 2011-10-01 When they have no one tall enough to go up against their opponent's giant pivot men and they begin the season with three straight losses, Chip and his friends overcome adversity by pitting ingenuity and teamwork against all obstacles.

Touchdown Pass Clair Bee, 1998-10-01 In the process of learning to go beyond himself and to reach out to others, high school star football player Chip Hilton uncovers an act of sabotage at the local pottery.

Freshman Quarterback Clair Bee, 1999-09-01 As a member of the freshman football team at State University, Chip Hilton encounters cliques, rivalries, and a conspiracy by the Booster Association to favor some players over others.

Sugar Charles Rosen, 2018-04 The 1980s were arguably the NBA's best decade, giving rise to Magic Johnson, Larry Bird, and Michael Jordan. They were among the game's greatest players who brought pro basketball out of its 1970s funk and made it faster, more fluid, and more exciting. Off the court, the game was changing rapidly too, with the draft lottery, shoe commercials, and a style driven largely by excess. One player who personified the eighties excess is Micheal Ray Richardson. During his eight year career in the NBA, 1978-86, he was a four time All Star, twice named to the All Defense team, and the first player to lead the league in both assists and steals. He was also a heavy cocaine user who went on days long binges but continued to be signed by teams that hoped he'd get straight. Eventually, he was the first and only player to be permanently disqualified from the NBA for repeat drug use. Tracking the rise, fall, and eventual redemption of Richardson throughout his playing days and subsequent coaching career, Charley Rosen describes the life defining pitfalls Richardson and other players faced and considers key themes such as off court and on court racism, anti-Semitism, womanizing, allegations of point shaving within the league, and drug and alcohol abuse by star players. By constructing his various lines of narration around the polarizing figure of Richardson, equal parts basketball savant, drug addict, and pariah, Rosen illuminates some of the more unseemly aspects of the NBA during this period, going behind the scenes to provide an account of what the league's darker side was like during its celebrated golden age.
