Backstairs At The White House:

My Thirty Years Backstairs at the White House Lillian Rogers Parks, 1961 This is the combined biography of two domestic servants a mother and her daughter each of whom worked for thirty years in the White House In 1909 he mother was hired by President Taft who was the first president ever to allow a Black person to enter the White House She worked in the White House until 1939 Her daughter was hired by President Hoover in 1929 and she worked there until the final days of the Eisenhower Administration in 1959 This book should be required reading for every serious student of American history The authors were eye witnesses to some of the great events of history and offer different prospectives from that found elsewhere For example we learn that when Calvin Coolidge announced in 1927 that he did not intend to run for re election he was playing hard to get He believed that the people would insist that he accept a third term of office He expected to be drafted He actually wanted a third term in office Coolidge was disappointed when Herbert Hoover was nominated as he disagreed with Hoover s ideas and policies We learn that in the last year and a half of the presidency of President Woodrow Wilson he had to be wheeled around the White House in a wheel chair and was often engaged in sickbed rambling When Franklin D Roosevelt took office as president he was an invalid confined to a wheelchair Few Americans knew this and elaborate means were devised to make it appear that Roosevelt was robust and healthy Whenever he was to speak railings were created beside where he was to be standing This was done so that it would appear that FDR was walking taking a few steps up to the speaker s podium when in reality the handrails were holding him up and he was dragging his feet a short distance to create the illusion that he was walking Also Roosevelt was dependent on his mother Sara Delano who had all the money and controlled his finances speak railings were created beside where he was to be standing This was done so that it would appear that FDR was walking taking a few steps up to the speaker's podium when in reality the handrails were holding him up and he was dragging his feet a short distance to create the illusion that he was walking Also Roosevelt was dependent on his mother Sara Delano who had all the money and controlled his finances The Hidden White House Robert Klara,2013-10-22 In 1948 Harry Truman President of the United States almost fell through the ceiling of the Blue Room in a bathtub into a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution A team of the nation's top architects was hastily assembled to inspect the White House and upon seeing the state the old mansion was in insisted the First Family be evicted immediately What followed was the biggest home improvement job the nation had ever seen Jet ,1979-03-22 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Who's Haunting the White House? Jeff Belanger,2008 Filled with archival images and original illustrations this book takes young readers on a tour of the White House examining its history and the ghosts believed to reside there Full color My Thirty Years Backstairs at the White House Lillian Rogers Parks,1913 Laura Bush Robert P. Watson,2005 In this book version of the official report presented to First Lady Laura Bush the reader will find the same contents that were included in the actual report This report marks the first ever time that such an undertaking was performed for the nation's first lady The report designed as a service to assist Mrs Bush in meeting the demands of her new role contains advice for the first lady and her senior staff as well as information on the history challenges and duties associated with the Office of the First Lady The contributors include the former first ladies public officials and leading historians of the first ladyship The Office of the First Lady is arguably the most intriguing and demanding unpaid job in the country The president's wife is in the unique position to wield significant power and influence as she presides over White House social affairs and important social projects while serving as the president's most trusted confidante and one of the country's most celebrated women Backstairs at the White House Gwen Bagni,Paul Dubov,1979 Real Life at the White House John Whitcomb,Claire Whitcomb,2000 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Prologue ,1996
