The Backstreets Perhat Tursun, 2022-09-13 The Backstreets is an astonishing novel by a preeminent contemporary Uyghur author who was disappeared by the Chinese state It follows an unnamed Uyghur man who comes to the impenetrable Chinese capital of Xinjiang after finding a temporary job in a government office Seeking to escape the pain and poverty of the countryside he finds only cold stares and rejection He wanders the streets accompanied by the bitter fog of winter pollution reciting a monologue of numbers and odors lust and loathing memories and madness Perhat Tursun's novel is a work of untrammelled literary creativity His evocative prose recalls a vast array of canonical world writers contemporary Chinese authors such as Mo Yan the modernist images and rhythms of Camus Dostoevsky and Kafka the serious yet absurdist dissection of the logic of racism in Ellison's Invisible Man while drawing deeply on Uyghur literary traditions and Sufi poetics and combining all these disparate influences into a style that is distinctly Perhat Tursun's own The Backstreets is a stark fable about urban isolation and social violence dehumanization and the racialization of ethnicity Yet its protagonist's vivid recollections of maternal tenderness and first love reveal how memory and imagination offer profound forms of resilience A translator's introduction situates the novel in the political atmosphere that led to the disappearance of both the author and his work
