Nardone, Walter A. Frankel, 1984 The Musical Times, 1904 The Routledge Research Companion to Johann Sebastian Bach Robin Leaver, 2016-11-25 The Ashgate Research Companion to Johann Sebastian Bach provides an indispensable introduction to the Bach research of the past thirty five years It is not a lexicon providing information on all the major aspects of Bach's life and work such as the Oxford Composer Companion J S Bach Nor is it an entry level research tool aimed at those making a beginning of such studies The valuable essays presented here are designed for the next level of Bach research and are aimed at masters and doctoral students as well as others interested in coming to terms with the current state of Bach research Each author covers three aspects within their specific subject area firstly to describe the results of research over the past thirty five years concentrating on the most significant and controversial such as the debate over Smend's NBA edition of the B minor Mass Blume's conclusions with regard to Bach's religion in the wake of the new chronology Rifkin's one to a vocal part interpretation the rediscovery of the Berlin Singakademie manuscripts in Kiev the discovery of hitherto unknown manuscripts and documents and the re-evaluation of previously known sources Secondly each author provides a critical analysis of current research being undertaken that is exploring new aspects reinterpreting earlier assumptions and or opening up new methodologies For example Martin W B Jarvis has suggested that Anna Magdalena Bach composed the cello suites and contributed to other works of her husband another controversial hypothesis whose newly proposed forensic methodology requires investigation On the other hand research into Bach's knowledge of the Lutheran chorale tradition is currently underway which is likely to shed more light on the composer's choices and usage of this tradition Thirdly each author identifies areas that are still in need of investigation and research Auction catalogues of books Puttick and Simpson (messrs.), 1846 Catalogs Harold Reeves (Firm), 1919 Organ Literature Corliss Richard Arnold, 2003-02 Now in paperback Cloth edition 0 8108 2964 9
