secure feeling about her mother A child accepts family problems as just being the normal for them Up until recently Lydia has tried not to dwell on the strange feelings or questions within her mind about the tension just hoping it does not involve her But a hint of uncomfortable doubt or uneasiness lingers In America we are made up of mixtures of diversities of culture and ways of life Breeding and background rarely rears its ugly head as we become adults Finding our own roots and knowing from whom we are descended is often just a passing interest Such knowledge can be enlightening at times or can be a little fearful Lydia comes face to face with a prejudice attitude forcing her to see the damage that can be inflicted on another human being Will she have to dig deep into her own beginnings for her own peace of mind The Monthly Magazine
