

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system includes a vocal line (Soprano) and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The piano accompaniment is written for both hands, with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The second system continues the piano accompaniment. The score is marked with a 'D' time signature, indicating a common time signature. The music is written in a style typical of early 20th-century sheet music, with a focus on melody and harmonic support.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system consists of a single grand staff with a treble and bass clef, featuring a melody in the treble and a bass line in the bass. The second system is a piano arrangement for four hands, with two staves for the right hand and two for the left hand. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte).
