Brain Freeze - 321 °F J. P. Polidoro, 2011-03-04 American Science Fiction: Four Classic Novels 1960-1966 (LOA #321) Poul Anderson, Clifford D. Simak, Daniel Keyes, Roger Zelazny, 2019-11-05 In a deluxe collector's edition four classic science fiction novels from the genre's most transformative decade including the landmark Flowers for Algernon This volume the first of a two volume set gathering the best American science fiction from the tumultuous 1960s opens with Poul Anderson's immensely popular The High Crusade in which aliens planning to conquer Earth land in Lincolnshire during the Hundred Years War In Clifford Simak's Hugo Award winning Way Station Enoch Wallace is a spry 124 year old Civil War veteran whose lifelong job monitoring the intergalactic pit stop inside his home is largely uneventful until a CIA agent shows up and Cold War hostilities threaten the peaceful harmony of the Galactic confederation Daniel Keyes's beloved Flowers for Algernon winner of the Nebula Award and adapted as the Academy Award winning movie Charly is told through the journal entries of Charlie Gordon a young man with severe learning disabilities who is the test subject for surgery to improve his intelligence And in the postapocalyptic earthscape of Roger Zelazny's Hugo Award winning And Call Me Conrad also published as This Immortal Conrad Nomikos reluctantly accepts the responsibility of showing the planet to the governing extraterrestrials representative and protecting him from rebellious remnants of the human race Using early manuscripts and original setting copy this Library of America volume restores the novel to a version that most closely approximates Zelazny's original text The Mind at Hand Michael J. Strauss, 2013-01-01 The Mind at Hand explores how artists scientists writers and others students and professionals alike see their world record it revise it and come to know it It is about the rough drawn sketch diagram chart or other graphic representation and the focus these provide for creative work that follows from them Such work could involve solving a problem composing a musical score proposing a hypothesis creating a painting and many other imaginative and inventive tasks The book is for for visual learners of all kinds for scientists as well as artists and for anyone who keeps a journal notebook or lab book in order to think and create visually It is also a book for teachers and educational administrators interested in learning about new active learning strategies involving drawing and possible outcomes of these in classrooms The formulas and symbols of chemistry the diagrams and features of the landscape in geology and the organisms and structures in biology are all represented as images on pages or screens Students create them when studying problem solving and learning Once in front of their eyes they can be reconsidered revised and reconstructed into new images for further consideration and revision It is how artists often create a painting or a sculpture and how scientists come up with new hypotheses This is how learning occurs not only across disciplines but in all kinds of creative endeavors through a continuing process of creation revision and re creation It is drawing to learn The Science of Pets Jay Ingram, 2025-11-04 In the tradition of The Inside of a Dog top science writer and TV personality Jay Ingram shares new insights into the hearts minds and bodies of the animals who love us or do they More than one billion pets live in homes

around the world sleeping on dog beds clawing at cat trees swimming in bowls crawling around in aquariums Canada the United States Brazil the EU and China make up half of those households with half of the world's population owning a pet of some sort Yet despite the ubiquitous animals that lick our faces and steal food off the counter we really don't know a lot about the scientific side of their existence why do dogs spin around when excited do our cats really love us do lizards make good pets can single celled organisms be considered pets you can cut the hydra in two and have two pets what are parrots thinking and can a horse be considered a pet Or pigs even those sent to market Or praying mantises Or how about robot pets in Japan caring for the elderly Veteran science broadcaster and journalist Jay Ingram author of twenty popular science titles including the bestselling Science of Why series has researched the latest science behind our beloved furry and not so furry creatures that sleep on our sofas and eat our pizza crusts Along the way he discusses the myths and misconceptions about our companions do dogs always do their business facing north Why are we seeing a rise in exotic pets such as tigers and bears Are the deer and foxes we see rescued on Instagram considered pets and could they be domesticated Did dogs entirely evolve from wolves and why Can you communicate with a turtle Do highly intelligent octopi make good pets And why are baby animals like baby humans so darned cute have they evolved to be born cute as a survival mechanism and would that cuteness matter to others of their own kind who might consider them their next lunch Full of fabulous insights humorous asides and the wisdom of decades in science reporting The Science of Pets will elucidate as it entertains You will never look at your pets the same way again but be sure they're watching you closely

Ionic Attraction D.R. Rosensteel, 2020-01-06 Zach's got a secret The only reason he's agreed to an internship at the Mastermind Complex a high tech academy for teens is to use their supercomputer to find the person who framed him He never stole anything but was locked up in juvie anyway Now he's out he's got a plan and nothing will get in his way not even the girl he's been partnered with who excels at proving opposites attract Jane's got a secret She was the informant who led to Zach's arrest Did she mean for that to happen No way And now she has to work with him to save the world Because an internship at the Mastermind Complex is actually a program to train super geniuses as soldiers in a war of the minds Zach's and Jane's intellectual skills complement each other making them an unbeatable pair She can't resist their ionic attraction but if he ever discovers the truth she'll lose him forever And worse breaking their partnership would mean sacrificing all the innocent lives depending on them

The Organized Mind Daniel J. Levitin, 2015-09-01 New York Times bestselling author and neuroscientist Daniel J Levitin shifts his keen insights from your brain on music to your brain in a sea of details The information age is drowning us with an unprecedented deluge of data At the same time we're expected to make more and faster decisions about our lives than ever before No wonder then that the average American reports frequently losing car keys or reading glasses missing appointments and feeling worn out by the effort required just to keep up But somehow some people become quite accomplished at managing information flow In The Organized Mind Daniel J Levitin PhD uses the latest brain science to demonstrate how those people excel and how readers can use their methods to regain a sense of mastery over the way they organize their homes workplaces and time With lively entertaining chapters on everything from the kitchen junk drawer to health care to executive office workflow Levitin reveals how new research into the cognitive neuroscience of attention and memory can be applied to the challenges of our daily lives This Is Your Brain on Music showed how to better play and appreciate music through an understanding of how the brain works The Organized Mind shows how to navigate the churning flood of information in the twenty first century with the same neuroscientific perspective Cumulated Index Medicus ,1989 Cold Bill Streever,2024-09-24 From avalanches to glaciers from seals to snowflakes and from Shackleton s expedition to The Year Without Summer Bill Streever journeys through history myth geography and ecology in a year long search for cold real icy 40 below cold In July he finds it while taking a dip in a 35 degree Arctic swimming hole in September while excavating our planet s ancient and not so ancient ice ages and in October while exploring hibernation habits in animals from humans to wood frogs to bears A scientist whose passion for cold runs red hot Streever is a wondrous guide he conjures woolly mammoth carcasses and the ice age Clovis tribe from melting glaciers and he evokes blizzards so wild readers may freeze limb by vicarious limb The National Magazine Abel Stevens,James Floy,1853 Sports-Specific Rehabilitation - E-Book Robert A. Donatelli,2006-10-11 A comprehensive resource for focusing on returning injured athletes to their optimal performance This book discusses exercise principles muscle fatigue muscle damage and overtraining concepts pathophysiology of overuse injuries core evaluation in sports specific testing physiological basis of exercise specific to sport and special considerations for the athlete Social features such as evidence based clinical application boxes provide the reader with a solid body of research upon which to base their practice Aligned to the Guide to Physical Therapy Practice to help learn how to work with athletes injuries and help them make a physical comeback while following best practices Incorporation of muscle physiology demonstrates it as the basis for athlete s exercise prescription Coverage of pathophysiology of overuse injuries illustrates the damage to the musculoskeletal system Inclusion of treatment and training approaches for athletic rehabilitation shows how to restore the musculoskeletal system back to full flexibility strength power and endurance Evidence based clinical application boxes found throughout the book cite key studies and provide real world application to a clinical setting Extensive photographs show hands on demonstrations of important rehabilitation techniques helping the cinician to accurately apply them during treatment
