

Relive the first 20 Years of Sesame Street!

Join Jim Henson, the Sesame Street Muppets, guest host Bill Cosby and the Sesame Street family as they reflect on the first 20 years Sesame Street has been providing pre-school children with entertaining and educational programming. After 20 years, the places around Sesame Street remain the same, but the faces have aged and changed. Many children from the first days of Sesame Street have grown up and had children of their own who now enjoy the crazy antics of Kermit the Frog, Bert, Ernie and Big Bird. Roving reporter Kermit tracks down former Sesame Street kids who are more than happy to say hello to their old friends and characters. Also featured is a special appearance by Ray Charles on Sesame Street as he sings the famous melody "It's Not Easy Being Green". With creativity that transcends racial and cultural difference, it's no surprise that co-productions of Sesame Street are seen in over 80 countries around the globe with each country showcasing its own distinctive characters. An innovative curriculum, toe-tapping music and a cast of lovable characters inspire the magic that has made Sesame Street a world-wide children's favorite.
