the People of the Book using the Qur'an as a benchmark and standard of comparison. It explores the parallels, differences, and elements absent in both scriptures. The book reveals that not all content within the Torah is invalid; though a significant portion has undergone alteration and distortion (tahrif and tabdil). Such an intertextual study does not serve as a gateway to legitimizing religious pluralism; on the contrary, it reaffirms the concept of wihdah ad din (the unity of religion) as indicated in the Qur'an and the Sunnah.

Prof. Dr. H. Muhammad Galib Mattola, MA, lecturer at UIN Alauddin Makassar and a member of the Indonesian Ulema Council (MUI) South Sulawesi, discusses the importance of understanding the Torah through the lens of the Qur'an and the Hadith of the Prophet, aiming to achieve a correct understanding of the previous scriptures. Islam views religion as one of the guidances of Allah to humanity through His messengers, with Muhammad as the seal of the prophets. Therefore, understanding the previous scriptures is crucial in the context of Islam to comprehend the continuity of divine revelation and to affirm the truth of faith.

Jews and Arabs in Pre- and Early Islamic Arabia, Michael Lecker, 2024-12-11. Most of the articles in this volume belong to what can be described as the preparatory work which is prerequisite to the study of pre and early Islamic history. Lecker's interests include tribal Arabia, including tribes in the Yemen and Hadramawt, the history of the Arabian Jews, the biography of the Prophet Muhammad, and early Islamic literature in general. While the studies are based on a wide range of sources, they often focus on illuminating small accounts which are analyzed and placed in their historical context. The comprehensive index renders the articles easily accessible.
