Practicum Professor

My practicum was to shadow and assist the Curator and Executive Director of Avoca Museum, Michael Hudson. During my hours I was involved in the creation of one exhibit on Juliette Fauntleroy, an placard and design overhaul for an exhibit on James Dearing, and research on three specific artifacts: a portrait of Charles Lynch, a portrait of Brigadier-General James Dearing, and a Eagle-Pommel Sword. During this time I also learned about the administration side of handling a house museum, as well as grant writing, event management, board meetings, and interior and exterior rehabilitation. Using many resources and research avenues I was able to accomplish my tasks as well as find new unknown information on the old residents of the Avoca Museum. I worked closely with the Curator of the Museum as well as its Event Coordinator in all aspects of managing a museum. My practicum consisted of over 180 hours of work.
