Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Abraham Kuyper: An Annotated Bibliography 1857-2010 Rev. Tjitze Kuipers, 2011-09-20 This bibliography of Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 Dutch theologian journalist and politician and above all prolific writer is the result of a life long research Kuyper s publications range from daily editorials in newspapers via pamphlets on present day issues and a 1000 page political program to academic publications like an encyclopedia of theology His works were ground laying for the neo Calvinist tradition in the Netherlands the United States Asia and Africa This is the first bibliography of his works in English and also the first all encompassing bibliography including all editions and translations It has been organized chronologically and each item contains bibliographical data and apt information about contents and context This is an indispensable academic tool for researchers of Kuyper and the neo Calvinist tradition Scriptural Perspicuity in the Early English Reformation in Historical Theology Richard M. Edwards, 2009 A consistent indigenous English doctrine of scriptural perspicuity correlates with a commitment to the availability of the vernacular scriptures in English and supports the English roots of the Early English Reformation EER Although political events and figures dominate the EER its religious component springing from John Wyclif and streaming throughout the tradition must be recognized more widely This book critically surveys the doctrine of scriptural perspicuity from the beginning of the Church in the first century noted as early as John Chrysostom through the seventeenth century examining its impact on the current debates concerning competing hermeneutical systems reader response hermeneutics and the debates in conservative American Presbyterianism and Reformed theology on subscription to the Westminster Confession of Faith the length of creation days and other issues T&T Clark Companion to Nonconformity Robert Pope, 2013-11-21 Protestant

Nonconformity the umbrella term for Congregationalists Presbyterians Baptists Methodists and Unitarians belongs specifically to the religious history of England and Wales Initially the result of both unwillingness to submit to the State s interference in Christian life and a dissatisfaction with the progress of reform in the English Church Nonconformity has been primarily motivated by theological concern ecclesial polity devotion and the nurture of godliness among the members of the church Alongside such churchly interests Nonconformity has also made a profound contribution to debates about the role of the State to family life and education culture in general trade and industry the development of philanthropy and charity and the development of pacifism In this volume for the first time Nonconformity and the breadth of its activity come under the expert scrutiny of a host of recognised scholars The result is a detailed and fascinating account of a movement in church history that while currently in decline has made an indelible mark on social political economic and religious life of the two nations
