Annotations A Guide To The Independent Critical Press:

Annotations Marie F. Jones, 1999 Annotations A Guide to the Independent Critical Press is the companion to the Alternative Press Index. It surveys 385 periodicals of the Left from around the world providing detailed descriptions of content, history, noted contributors, contact information, guidelines for writers, and statistics. Community Writing Paul S. Collins, 2001-02 First year college composition textbook features a series of recursive assignments that allow students to research, write about issues confronting their individual communities. Covers the basics of the course, the writing process.

From A to Zine Julie Bartel, 2004-08-02 Libraries eager to serve the underserved teen to twenty year old market can make the library a cool place to hang out. All it takes are zines, according to the author, young adult librarian Julie Bartel. Zines and alternative press materials provide a unique bridge to appeal to disenfranchised youth alienated by current collections. For librarians unfamiliar with the territory or anxious to broaden their collection, veteran zinester Bartel establishes the context, history, and philosophy of zines, then ushers readers through an easy do it yourself guide to creating a zine collection, including both print and electronic zines. While zines have their unique culture, they are also important within broader discussions of intellectual freedom and the Library Bill of Rights. Teen and young adult librarians, high school media specialists, and academic reference and adult services librarians will uncover answers to questions about this new and growing literary genre. What is a zine and how does a library zine collection work? What are the pros and cons of having a zine collection in the library? When promoting zines, what appeals to patrons and non-library users alike? What is the best way to catalog and display? Where can libraries get zines and how much do they cost? Bartel shares these lessons and more from a major urban library zine collection, as well as a comprehensive directory of zine resources in this one-stop, one-of-a-kind guide.

Annotations, 1999 Library Juice Concentrate Rory Litwin, 2006 Library Juice Concentrate is a compilation of the best of Library Juice, an e-zine published by Rory Litwin between 1998 and 2005 that dealt with foundational questions of librarianship during a period of rapid change. Library Juice served as the record for the library left during this period, including its veterans and newcomers, while at the same time offering original reflections on traditional questions. The book includes essays and other artifacts that investigate professional neutrality, intellectual freedom, alternative literature, the social effects of technological change, the cultural identity of the librarian, anarchist librarianship, the Cuba debate, Google's scanning project, subject heading reform, and other issues. The aim of the essays in Library Juice Concentrate is to provoke original thought and to encourage newcomers in the field to participate in professional discourse with confidence and with attention to the intellectual and political struggles of the past. Transition, A Day in the Life Priscilla K. Shontz, Richard A. Murray, 2007-04-30 The editors of liscareer.com have assembled 95 authors, each of whom describes a typical workday or work routine, sharing joys, sorrows, and annoyances in refreshingly candid fashion.
