ANNUAL REPORT 1999

R. A. W. RHODES, PETER BOGASON, BILL JENKINS AND WALTER KICKERT

When the Royal Institute of Public Administration (RIPA) owned Public Administration, the editors always reported annually on the journal's fortunes. The practice lapsed when the RIPA went into receivership. Now, with the launch of the journal as a European journal of public administration, we thought it was a good idea to reintroduce an annual report covering the journal's work in the previous year. It will provide an opportunity to air problems and to tell readers where the journal is heading.

The report describes the flow of manuscripts and the contents of the journal before briefly surveying each section. It ends with a resumé of our plans for the journal and a 'thank you' to the many people who have helped during the year.

MANUSCRIPTS

Table 1 shows the total number of manuscripts submitted in 1999 and their distribution between the main sections of the journal.

There has been a steady flow of material and the increase in submissions on Western Europe is both noteworthy and pleasing. On average we accept 1 in 4 papers (26 out of 109 submissions) but there are variations between sections; for example: 'Public Management' accepted 1 in 2 submissions because of the relative shortage of material.

CONTENTS

Table 2 shows the number of articles published in 1999 for each section of the journal.

Table 3 classifies the articles published in 1999 by their subject matter. It uses the categories in Rhodes 1995 and Rhodes and Dargie 1997 and so updates their historical analysis of the journal's contents. It shows a wide distribution of material, apart from the planned increase in articles on Western Europe and the EU.

TABLE 1 *Manuscripts submitted, 1999, by journal section

Journal section	Number of manuscripts
Main	62
European Forum	52†
Public Management (including Notes)	7
TOTAL	121

*Excludes conference papers and commissioned pieces.

†Includes 12 papers carried forward from 1998 to ensure we had enough copy to launch this new section.
