

Nursing Research Literature Review

Written by: [Your Name]

I. Introduction

This Nursing Research Literature Review aims to identify key research gaps in the field of nursing. As the healthcare landscape evolves, it's crucial to continuously update our understanding and practices based on new evidence. This review synthesizes current research trends and highlights areas where further investigation is necessary to advance nursing practice and patient outcomes.

II. Methods

To identify research gaps, a systematic review of recent literature was conducted, focusing on studies published from 2050 and beyond. The review process included:

- Search Strategy: Databases such as PubMed, CINAHL, and Cochrane Library were used to search for relevant studies using keywords related to nursing practice, patient care, and healthcare outcomes.
- Inclusion Criteria: Studies published after 2050, peer-reviewed articles, and research relevant to current nursing practices and challenges.
- Exclusion Criteria: Articles not available in English, non-peer-reviewed sources, and studies that do not directly contribute to identifying research gaps.

III. Results

The review of recent literature revealed several key trends and areas where further research is needed:

1. Technology Integration in Nursing Practice

- Current Trends: Increasing use of telehealth, electronic health records (EHRs), and mobile health applications.
- Research Gaps: Need for studies on the long-term impact of technology on patient outcomes, nurse-patient communication, and the effectiveness of new technologies in

It provides a good foundation for evidence based practice and further research. 4 stars Doody's Book Review Service. The nursing community is continually challenged with expanding the empirical knowledge base that informs rural nursing practice. This volume of the prestigious Annual Review of Nursing Research Focus on Rural Health addresses this challenge. Contributors have developed creative and effective strategies to identify relevant research and present them in the context of the rural delivery system. Topics include Nursing Research to Meet Health Care Needs of Rural Populations Improving Systems Quality of Care Patient Safety Improving Cultural Relevance of Rural Nursing Research Methodological Issues Constraints and Opportunities. Also included Contents of Previous 10 Volumes. The contributors all noted nurse scientists discuss the key problems they deal with on a daily basis utilizing recent rural and general health policy reports. This approach allows readers to learn new techniques and strategies for rural nursing practice that are firmly grounded in the evidence. While the primary examples are drawn from American contexts a special chapter on global perspectives highlights analogous problems and issues that rural nursing research raises across countries particularly the availability of resources. About the Editors This volume is edited by Elizabeth Merwin Associate Dean Research and the Director of the Rural Health Care Research Center at the University of Virginia School of Nursing.
