Arab Christian History In Middle East:

The Arab Christian Kenneth Cragg, 1991-01-01 Centuries before the existence of the Islamic faith there were Arabs who could be described as Christian And there has been a Christian Arabism an Arab Christianity since Muhammad s day Arab Christianity has survived Muslin dominance and this enlightening book takes an in depth look at its survival Christian Communities in the Arab Middle East Andrea Pacini, 1998 Existing before the Muslim conquest of the Middle East and integrated into the Islamic political order which for centuries has given full rights only to Muslims the various Eastern Christian communities have represented an important element of pluralism within Middle Eastern Arab societies The end of the twentieth century however marks a crucial period for the the Christian communities who have witnessed their base decline from 24% of the general population in 1914 to a mere 7% The rising tide of Christian emigration is just one of the most obvious signs of the communities growing unrest Beginning with an examination of the role played by Eastern Christians in the history of Arab society this ground breaking study presents a comprehensive and detailed analysis of the many challenges facing the Christian communities today Focusing on juridical status social political and economic dynamics and relationships with the the Muslim majority culture this intriguing study highlights the various political and cultural strategies employed by Eastern Christians as they attempt to guarantee their role and status as equal citizens in their own Arab states The Orthodox Church in the Arab World, 700-1700 Samuel Noble, Alexander Treiger, 2014-03-15 All of the texts chosen for this volume are interesting in their own right but the collection of these sources into a single volume with helpful introductions and bibliographies makes this book an invaluable resource for the study of Arabic Christianity and indeed the history of Christianity more broadly Hugoye Journal of Syriac Studies Arabic was among the first languages in which the Gospel was preached The Book of Acts mentions Arabs as being present at the first Pentecost in Jerusalem where they heard the Christian message in their native tongue Christian literature in Arabic is at least 1 300 years old the oldest surviving texts dating from the 8th century Pre modern Arab Christian literature embraces such diverse genres as Arabic translations of the Bible and the Church Fathers biblical commentaries lives of the saints theological and polemical treatises devotional poetry philosophy medicine and history Yet in the Western historiography of Christianity the Arab Christian Middle East is treated only peripherally if at all The first of its kind this anthology makes accessible in English representative selections from major Arab Christian works written between the eighth and eighteenth centuries The translations are idiomatic while preserving the character of the original The popular assumption is that in the wake of the Islamic conquests Christianity abandoned the Middle East to flourish elsewhere leaving its original heartland devoid of an indigenous Christian presence Until now several of these important texts have remained unpublished or unavailable in English Translated by leading scholars these texts represent the major genres of Orthodox literature in Arabic Noble and Treiger provide an introduction that helps form a comprehensive history of Christians within the Muslim world The collection marks an important contribution to the history of medieval Christianity and the history of the medieval Near East Christianity Habib Badr,2005 It is still generally taken for granted that the history of Christianity is essentially European history and that beyond Europe's immediate eastern borders lies a homogeneous Muslim world Here in comprehensive and accessible form is a unique survey of this Christian Middle Eastern heritage written by first class scholars and by those who best know the Eastern Mediterranean world from within This is a very significant book indeed for all Christians or non Christians who want a better understanding not only of the Middle East but of the whole of our contemporary cultural and religious scene Rowan Williams Archbishop of Canterbury Missionary engagement and theological creativity interaction with other religions cultures and civilizations and promotion of justice peace and freedom diaconal action and martyrdom in life and in death have marked the long complex and rich history of Eastern Christendom This book is a serious and bold attempt to provide a unique perspective on various dimensions and spheres of the churches life in the Middle East Aram I Catholicos of Cilicia and Moderator of the World Council of Churches Authors belonging to various ecclesial traditions trace together the history of Christianity in the Middle East Their common approach reveals to what extent unity in diversity has been a meaningful gift as much as it remains a demanding challenge to the historic lands where Christianity first spread Walter Cardinal Kasper President Pontifical Council for the Promotion of Christian Unity Arabic Christianity between the Ottoman Levant and Eastern Europe ,2021-08-24 This volume sheds light on the historical background and political circumstances that encouraged the dialogue between Eastern European Christians and Arabic speaking Christians of the Middle East in Ottoman times as well as the means employed in pursuing this dialogue for several centuries The ties that connected Eastern European Christianity with Arabic speaking Christians in the 16th 19th centuries are the focus of this book Contributors address the Arabic speaking hierarchs and scholars connections with patriarchs and rulers of Constantinople the Romanian Principalities Kyiv and the Tsardom of Moscow the circulation of literature models iconography and knowhow between the Middle East and Eastern Europe and research dedicated to them by Eastern European scholars Contributors are Stefano Di Pietrantonio Ioana Feodorov Serge Frantsouzoff Bernard Heyberger Elena Korovtchenko Sofia Melikyan Charbel Nassif Constantin A Panchenko Yulia Petrova Vera Tchentsova Mihai ip u and Carsten Walbiner Arab Christians and the Qur'an from the Origins of Islam to the Medieval Period ,2018-03-12 Arab Christians and the Qur'an from the Origins of Islam to the Medieval Period is a collection of essays on the use and interpretation of the Qur'an by Christians writing in Arabic in the period of Islamic rule in the Middle East up to the end of the thirteenth century These essays originated in the seventh Woodbrooke Mingana Symposium on Arab Christianity held in Birmingham UK in 2013 and are edited by Mark Beaumont Contributors are David Bertaina Sidney Griffith Sandra Keating Michael Kuhn Juan Pedro Monferrer Sala Gordon Nickel Emilio Platti and David Thomas The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East Mitri Raheb,Mark A. Lamport,2020-12-15 This work represents the current and most relevant content on the studies of how

Christianity has fared in the ancient home of its founder and birth Much has been written about Christianity and how it has survived since its migration out of its homeland but this comprehensive reference work reassesses the geographic and demographic impact of the dramatic changes in this perennially combustible world region The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East also spans the historical socio political and contemporary settings of the region and importantly describes the interactions that Christianity has had with other major minor religions in the region Islamism and the Future of the Christians of the Middle East Habib C. Malik, 2010 Christianity may have won the world in the sense of being the most widespread religion in history with the largest number of adherents but it is steadily losing ground in and around its birthplace Although Christians of the East are leaving their homelands in record numbers the powers of the West have shown little interest in their fate In this essay by the noted Lebanese scholar Habib Malik himself a child of Christian Lebanon Malik offers a sobering account of the ordeal of Christian Arabs of the Middle East in this era of Islamist radicalism European Cultural Diplomacy and Arab Christians in Palestine, 1918-1948 Karène Sanchez Summerer, Sary Zananiri, 2020-11-30 This open access book investigates the transnationally connected history of Arab Christian communities in Palestine during the British Mandate 1918-1948 through the lens of the birth of cultural diplomacy Relying predominantly on unpublished sources it examines the relationship between European cultural agendas and local identity formation processes and discusses the social and religious transformations of Arab Christian communities in Palestine via cultural lenses from an entangled perspective The 17 chapters reflect diverse research interests from case studies of individual archives to chapters that question the concept of cultural diplomacy more generally They illustrate the diversity of scholarship that enables a broad based view of how cultural diplomacy functioned during the interwar period but also the ways in which its meanings have changed The book considers British Mandate Palestine as an internationalized node within a transnational framework to understand how the complexity of cultural interactions and agencies engaged to produce new modes of modernity The Orthodox Church in the Arab World, 700-1700 Samuel Noble, Alexander Treiger, 2014-03-15 All of the texts chosen for this volume are interesting in their own right but the collection of these sources into a single volume with helpful introductions and bibliographies makes this book an invaluable resource for the study of Arabic Christianity and indeed the history of Christianity more broadly Hugoye Journal of Syriac Studies Arabic was among the first languages in which the Gospel was preached The Book of Acts mentions Arabs as being present at the first Pentecost in Jerusalem where they heard the Christian message in their native tongue Christian literature in Arabic is at least 1 300 years old the oldest surviving texts dating from the 8th century Pre modern Arab Christian literature embraces such diverse genres as Arabic translations of the Bible and the Church Fathers biblical commentaries lives of the saints theological and polemical treatises devotional poetry philosophy medicine and history Yet in the Western historiography of Christianity the Arab Christian Middle East is treated only peripherally if at all The first of its kind this anthology makes accessible in English representative selections from major Arab Christian works written between the eighth and eighteenth centuries. The translations are idiomatic while preserving the character of the original. The popular assumption is that in the wake of the Islamic conquests Christianity abandoned the Middle East to flourish elsewhere, leaving its original heartland devoid of an indigenous Christian presence. Until now, several of these important texts have remained unpublished or unavailable in English. Translated by leading scholars, these texts represent the major genres of Orthodox literature in Arabic. Noble and Treiger provide an introduction that helps form a comprehensive history of Christians within the Muslim world. The collection marks an important contribution to the history of medieval Christianity and the history of the medieval Near East.
