Arabic Historical Thought In The Classical Period:

Arabic Historical Thought in the Classical Period Tarif Khalidi, 1994-12 A survey of an entire tradition of historical thought and writing across a span of eight hundred years The Arabic Historical Tradition & the Early Islamic Conquests Boaz Shoshan, 2015-09-07 The early Arab conquests pose a considerable challenge to modern day historians The earliest historical written tradition emerges only after the second half of the eighth century over one hundred years removed from the events it contends to describe and was undoubtedly influenced by the motives and interpretations of its authors Indeed when speaking or writing about the past fact was not the only nor even the prime concern of Muslims of old The Arabic Historic Tradition and the Early Islamic Conquests presents a thorough examination of Arabic narratives on the early Islamic conquests It uncovers the influence of contemporary ideology examining recurring fictive motifs and evaluating the reasons behind their use Folklore and tribal traditions are evident throughout the narratives which aimed to promote individual tribal and regional fame through describing military prowess in the battles for the spread of Islam Common tropes are encountered across the materials which all serve a central theme the moral superiority of the Muslims which destined them to victory in God's plan Offering a key to the state of mind and agenda of early Muslim writers this critical reading of Arabic texts would be of great interest to students and scholars of early Arabic History and Literature as well as a general resource for Middle Eastern History Medieval Islamic Historiography Heather N. Keaney, 2013-07-18 This book is a comparative analysis of the medieval Sunni historiography of the caliphate of Uthman b Affan and the revolt against him By comparing treatments of Uthman in pietistic literature and universal chronicles the work traces the gradual silencing of more critical accounts in favor of those that portray Uthman as a saintly companion of the Prophet Muhammad Through a comparative analysis of authors between genres and time periods this book shows how authors were able to convey their personal perspectives on important religio political tensions that emerged through the revolt against Uthman namely the tension between Sunnis and Shiis religious and political authority and appeals to maintain stability and unity vs appeals for greater justice This last debate which in many ways began with the revolt against Uthman has been repeated most recently in the Arab Spring This work therefore provides readers with helpful historical context for important contemporary debates East and West in Late Antiquity J.H.W.F. Liebeschuetz, 2015-05-19 East and West in Late Antiquity combines published and unpublished articles by emeritus professor Wolf Liebeschuetz The collection concerns aspects of what Gibbon called the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire This interpretation is now much criticized but the author agrees with Gibbon Topics discussed are defensive strategies the settlement inside the Empire of invaders and immigrants and the modification of identities with the formation of new communities Liebeschuetz is interested in both the eastern and the western halves of the Empire In the East he is particularly concerned with Syria the expansion of settlement up to the edge of the desert and Christianisation The book ends with an examination of the role of the Christian Arab Ghassanids in the defense of the Syrian provinces in the century leading up to the conquest of the provinces by the Islamic Arabs

Models of Leadership in the Adab Narratives of Joseph, David, and Solomon Sami Helewa, 2017-11-01 Sami Helewa's book opens anew the Qi al anbiya Tales of the Prophets in terms of the leadership of ancient prophets in a Muslim context of friendship and enmity in the narrative detail of the prophets Joseph David and Solomon Although the Qi a genre is not court based advice literature these tales could function as advisory literature through the legendary prophetic figures It is hardly surprising that the prophets of ancient times have been moral prototypes for the Judo Islamic search for religio political leaders However the themes of leadership friendship and enmity are embedded in these tales in the writing of great Medieval Muslims like al abari of Baghdad and al Tha labi of Nishapur who were great scholars and men of literature Like the religious side of these tales Helewa maintains that the adab side of the Qi a has equal importance of meaning to the struggle of ancient prophets in their friendships and hostilities These tales as astutely compiled from Baghdad and Nishapur mirror interesting cultural nuances of expected leadership inherent in these great cities of learning This book will be a great value for those interested in the Sira genre the overall Qi a genre the inheritance of prophets the adab of religious writing the advice literature and the history of Baghdad and Nishapur

Damascus after the Muslim Conquest Nancy Khalek, 2011-09-09 Before it fell to Muslim armies in AD 635 6 Damascus had a long and prestigious history as a center of Christianity How did this city which became the capitol of the Islamic Empire and its people negotiate the transition from a late antique or early Byzantine world to an Islamic culture In Damascus after the Muslim Conquest Nancy Khalek demonstrates that the changes that took place in Syria during this formative period of Islamic life were not simply a matter of the replacement of one civilization by another as a result of military conquest but rather of shifting relationships and practices in a multifaceted social and cultural setting Even as late antique forms of religion and culture persisted the formation of Islamic identity was affected by the people who constructed lived in and narrated the history of their city Khalek draws on the evidence of architecture and the testimony of pilgrims biographers geographers and historians to shed light on this process of identity formation Offering a fresh approach to the early Islamic period she moves the study of Islamic origins beyond a focus on issues of authenticity and textual criticism and initiates an interdisciplinary discourse on narrative storytelling and the interpretations of material culture
