Arbitration and Renegotiation of International Investment Agreements: A Study with Particular Reference to Means of Conflict Avoidance under Natural Resources Investment Agreements Wolfgang Peter, 1995-06-08

Arbitration and Renegotiation of International Investment Agreements: A Study with Particular Reference to Means of Conflict Avoidance Under Natural Resources Investment Agreements Wolfgang Peter, Jean-Quentin de Kuyper, Bénédicte Candolle, 1995-06-08 This book is a second revised edition of the original 1986 publication Since then the issue of contract change has increasingly challenged the business community and legal practitioners The world wide recession may well have accelerated the need to secure contractual relationships by reasonable flexibility Successful foreign investment a relentless challenge is subject to many unpredictable errors Of all these variables however successful investment is most dependent on the investor host country relationship which is the object of the present study In particular the pressure by host countries for contract change and its counterpart the investor's defence of contract stability The book is essentially a reference handbook for legal practitioners It analyzes a variety of increasingly important questions concerning international investment agreements that come under pressure for change by one of the contracting parties either a transnational corporation or a host country government The seven case studies and the analytical chapters which follow are based on the author's research and the assistance of corporate and government officials experts from the United Nations and other organizations and members of academic research institutes

International Energy Investment Law Mustafa Erkan, 2011-01-01 Presents the results of a questionnaire based survey circulated to the main players in the petroleum sector revealing actual existing contractual risk management techniques and showing a true picture of the political risk situation in the petroleum sector P 4 of cover

Contractual Renegotiations and International Investment Arbitration Aikaterini Florou, 2020-03-02 In Contractual Renegotiations and International Investment Arbitration Aikaterini Florou explores the sensitive issues of renegotiating state contracts and the relationship between those contracts and the overarching international investment treaties By introducing novel insights from economics the author deconstructs the contract treaty interaction demonstrating that it is not only treaties that impact the underlying contracts but also that those contracts have an effect on the way the open textured treaty standards are interpreted The originality of the argument is combined with an innovative interpretative methodology based on relational contract theory and transaction cost economics Departing from the traditional emphasis of international lawyers on the text of investment contracts Florou shows instead that such contracts are first and foremost economic animals and the theory of obsolescing bargaining does not paint a full picture of the contract treaty interaction

The ICSID Convention Christoph H. Schreuer, 2001-07-23 The Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States entered into force in October 1966 and is administered by ICSID International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes There are now 131 countries which have ratified the convention Its caseload
