Aptitudes and Instructional Methods Lee Joseph Cronbach, Richard E. Snow, 1981 Aptitudes and Instructional Methods Lee Joseph Cronbach, Richard E. Snow, 1981 Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy D. C. Phillips, 2014-05-19 Education is a field sometimes beset by theories of the day and with easy panaceas that overpromise the degree to which they can alleviate pressing educational problems The two volume Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy introduces readers to theories that have stood the test of time and those that have provided the historical foundation for the best of contemporary educational theory and practice Drawing together a team of international scholars this invaluable reference examines the global landscape of all the key theories and the theorists behind them and presents them in the context needed to understand their strengths and weaknesses In addition to interpretations of long established theories this work offers essays on cutting edge research and concise to the point definitions of key concepts ideas schools and figures Features Over 300 signed entries by trusted experts in the field are organized into two volumes and overseen by a distinguished General Editor and an international Editorial Board Entries are followed by cross references and further reading suggestions A Chronology of Theory within the field of education highlights developments over the centuries a Reader's Guide groups entries thematically and a master Bibliography facilitates further study The Reader's Guide detailed index and cross references combine for strong search and browse capabilities in the electronic version Available in a choice of print or electronic formats Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy is an ideal reference for anyone interested in the roots of contemporary educational theory Fifty Modern Thinkers on Education Liora Bresler, David Cooper, Joy Palmer, 2002-09-11 Fifty Modern Thinkers on Education looks at fifty of the twentieth century's most significant contributors to the debate on education Among those included are Pierre Bourdieu Elliot Eisner Hans J Eysenck Michel Foucault Henry Giroux Jurgen Habermas Susan Isaacs A S Neill Herbert Read Simone Weil Together with Fifty Major Thinkers on Education this book provides a unique history of educational thinking Each essay gives key biographical information an outline of the individual's principal achievements and activities an assessment of his or her impact and influence and a list of their major writings and suggested further reading Fifty Modern Thinkers on Education Joy Palmer, David Edward Cooper, Liora Bresler, 2001 Looks at fifty of the twentieth century's most significant contributors to the debate on education Each essay gives key biographical information an outline of the individual's principal achievements and activities an assessment of his or her impact and influence and a list of their major writings and suggested further reading Aptitude, Learning, and Instruction Richard E. Snow, Pat-Anthony Federico, William E. Montague, 2021-05-30 For the previous 6 years before publication Office of Naval Research ONR had been conducting a thematically oriented contract research program aimed in large part at developing the kind of broad theoretical framework necessary for a workable process interpretation of aptitude learning and performance Originally published in 1980 the papers in this collection are generally addressed to three broad areas that were central to those interests of the ONR Personnel and Training Research Programs One area is concerned with individual differences information processing as revealed in simple laboratory or psychometric tests The second area focuses on the structural aspects of learning and performance using tools and concepts from semantic memory theory to describe what is learned and how it is learned And the third area is aimed at the management of instruction It addresses itself to the kinds of research and instructional designs required for effective implementation of adaptive instruction

Leaders in Educational Research María de Ibarrola,D.C. Phillips,2014-11-04 In this volume fourteen fellows of the International Academy of Education whose research work is known internationally reflect upon the ways in which their careers have been shaped by early family influences by random events and surprise opportunities and by nascent intellectual interests and academic mentoring The authors come from many different countries Australia Belgium Cyprus Germany Greece Israel Mexico South Africa and the USA and from a number of disciplinary or intellectual orientations including curriculum development economics educational measurement and statistical analysis history philosophy policy analysis program evaluation psychology and sociology They come from diverse social and cultural backgrounds and in many cases rose above the travails presented by wars social unrest and social injustice to attain an education that launched them eventually into a research career On this path many were unexpectedly assisted by established researchers who served as mentors or enablers Their personal stories then are of broad interest and may even be a source of comfort and inspiration to younger colleagues who are commencing their careers in the international educational research community
