Apuleius Rhetorical Works:

Apuleius Apuleius, 2001 The Apologia Apuleius self defence against a charge of magic delivered in North Africa in A D 158 9 has been well described as a masterpiece of the Second Sophistic It is a brilliant lively and colourful piece and is the only Latin forensic oration preserved from the second century A D providing important evidence for contemporary North African life

Apuleius Apuleius, 2001 Faulkner's Reception of Apuleius' The Golden Ass in The Reivers Vernon L. Provencal, 2020-07-09 Faulkner's final novel The Reivers has been gently dismissed by scholars and critics as no more than its subtitle claims A Reminiscence Although the new millennium has seen a new appreciation for Faulkner's later novels The Reivers is still perceived as a slightly fictionalized comic memoir romanticizing the early life of the author in the pre civil rights American South This volume takes this dismissal of The Reivers to task for failing to appreciate its employment of the Apuleian narrative of life altering metamorphosis to offer as his literary farewell hope for humanity's self redemption Vernon L Provencal studies the reception of The Golden Ass in The Reivers as comic novels of moral katabasis wilful descent into the lawless underworld and providential anabasis societal and spiritual redemption As the independent basis of the reception study The Reivers receives its first ever detailed reading while The Golden Ass is read anew from the teleological perspective offered by the undervalued prophecy that in the end the comic hero would become the book itself

The Statesman in Plutarch's Works, Volume I: Plutarch's Statesman and his Aftermath: Political, Philosophical, and Literary Aspects Jeroen Bons, Ton Kessels, Dirk Schenkeveld, Lukas de Blois, 2017-07-31 This volume presents the first half of the proceedings of the Sixth International Conference of the International Plutarch Society 2002 The selected papers are divided by theme in sections concentrating on political philosophical and literary aspects of Plutarch's presentation of statesmen and their activities and on the aftermath of this Plutarchan heritage The volume bears witness to the ongoing wide ranging interest in the work of Plutarch

Apuleius and Africa Benjamin Todd Lee, Ellen Finkelpearl, Luca Graverini, 2014-05-09 The Metamorphoses or Golden Ass of Apuleius ca 170 CE is a Latin novel written by a native of Madauros in Roman North Africa roughly equal to modern Tunisia together with parts of Libya and Algeria Apuleius novel is based on the model of a lost Greek novel it narrates the adventures of a Greek character with a Roman name who spends the bulk of the novel transformed into an animal traveling from Greece to Rome only to end his adventures in the capital city of the empire as a priest of the Egyptian goddess Isis Apuleius Florida and Apology deal more explicitly with the African provenance and character of their author while also demonstrating his complex interaction with Greek Roman and local cultures Apuleius philosophical works raise other questions about Greek vs African and Roman cultural identity Apuleius in Africa addresses the problem of this intricate complex of different identities and its connection to Apuleius literary production It especially emphasizes Apuleius African heritage a heritage that has for the most part been either downplayed or even deplored by previous scholarship The contributors include philologists historians and experts in material culture among them are some of the most respected scholars in their fields The chapters give due attention to all elements of Apuleius oeuvre and break new ground both on the interpretation of Apuleius literary production and on the culture of the Roman Empire in the second century The volume also includes a modern sub Saharan contribution in which Africa mainly means Mediterranean Africa

Machines of the Mind Katharine Breen,2021-05-11 In Machines of the Mind Katharine Breen proposes that medieval personifications should be understood neither as failed novelistic characters nor as instruments of heavy handed didacticism She argues that personifications are instead powerful tools for thought that help us to remember and manipulate complex ideas testing them against existing moral and political paradigms Specifically different types of medieval personification should be seen as corresponding to positions in the rich and nuanced medieval debate over universals Breen identifies three different types of personification Platonic Aristotelian and Prudentian that gave medieval writers a surprisingly varied spectrum with which to paint their characters Through a series of new readings of major authors and works from Plato to Piers Plowman Breen illuminates how medieval personifications embody the full range of positions between philosophical realism and nominalism varying according to the convictions of individual authors and the purposes of individual works Recalling Gregory the Great s reference to machinae mentis machines of the mind Breen demonstrates that medieval writers applied personification with utility and subtlety employing methods of personification as tools that serve different functions Machines of the Mind offers insight for medievalists working at the crossroads of religion philosophy and literature as well as for scholars interested in literary character building and gendered relationships among characters readers and texts beyond the Middle Ages

Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite,2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian s writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian s writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian s identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph

Philosophy, Rhetoric, and Sophistry in the High Roman Empire Jeroen Lauwers,2015-09-07 How is it possible that modern scholars have labelled Maximus of Tyre a second century CE performer of philosophical orations as a sophist or a half philosopher while his own self presentation is that of a genuine philosopher If we take Maximus claim to philosophical authority seriously his case can deepen our understanding of the dynamic nature of Imperial philosophy Through a discursive analysis of twelve Imperial intellectuals alongside Maximus dialaxeis the author proposes an interpretative framework to assess the purpose behind the representation of philosophy rhetoric and sophistry in Maximus oeuvre This is thus as yet the first book length attempt at situating the historical communication process implicit in the surviving Maximean texts in the concurrent context of the Imperial intellectual world The Oxford Handbook of the Second Sophistic Daniel S.

Richter, William A. Johnson, 2017-10-24 Focusing on the period known as the Second Sophistic an era roughly co extensive with the second century AD this Handbook serves the need for a broad and accessible overview The study of the Second Sophistic is a relative new comer to the Anglophone field of classics and much of what characterizes it temporally and culturally remains a matter of legitimate contestation The present handbook offers a diversity of scholarly voices that attempt to define as much as is possible in a single volume the state of this rapidly developing field Included are chapters that offer practical guidance on the wide range of valuable textual materials that survive many of which are useful or even core to inquiries of particularly current interest e g gender studies cultural history of the body sociology of literary culture history of education and intellectualism history of religion political theory history of medicine cultural linguistics intersection of the Classical traditions and early Christianity The Handbook also contains essays devoted to the work of the most significant intellectuals of the period such as Plutarch Dio Chrysostom Lucian Apuleius the novelists the Philostrati and Aelius Aristides In addition to content and bibliographical guidance however this volume is designed to help to situate the textual remains within the period and its society to describe and circumscribe not simply the literary matter but the literary culture and societal context For that reason the Handbook devotes considerable space at the front to various contextual essays and throughout tries to keep the contextual demands in mind In its scope and in its pluralism of voices this Handbook thus represents a new approach to the Second Sophistic one that attempts to integrate Greek literature of the Roman period into the wider world of early imperial Greek Latin Jewish and Christian cultural production and one that keeps a sharp focus on situating these texts within their socio cultural context Literary Currents and Romantic Forms Kathryn Chew, J.R.

Morgan, Stephen M. Trzaskoma, 2019-03-15 Bryan Reardon 1928 2009 was one of the most important and influential figures in the revival of scholarly interest in the Greek novel and ancient fiction in the last quarter of the twentieth century His organisation of the first International Conference on the Ancient Novel ICAN at Bangor North Wales in 1976 was a landmark in the field and an inspiration to the organisers of subsequent ICANs from which Ancient Narrative itself sprang As editor of Collected Ancient Greek Novels University of California Press 1989 second edition 2008 he made the Greek novels accessible to a wider readership and won a place for them in university syllabuses across the English speaking world This volume contains twenty essays by leading scholars of ancient fiction who were all pupils colleagues or close friends of Bryan Reardon in memory of his scholarship energy guidance and humanity They cover a range of topics including ancient literary theory and the conceptualisation of fiction discussion of individual novels Chariton Longus Iamblichus Achilles Tatius and Apuleius and novelistic texts a papyrus fragment of a lost novel and Philostratus Life of Apollonius the afterlife of the ancient novel in a Renaissance commentary on Roman law in a seventeenth century essay on the origin of the novel and in a seventeenth century series of paintings in a French chateau and a speculative reconstruction of the morning after the end of Heliodorus novel The title of the volume commemorates two of Bryan Reardon's most important books Courants littéraires grecs des II^e et III^e siècles après J.C. Paris 1971 and The Form of Greek Romance Princeton 1991 and the photograph of Aphrodisias on the front cover is a tribute to his critical edition of Chariton 2004
