by Islam nor one simply explained by reference to the sectarian conflicts of a mosaic society. Instead Barakat reveals a society that is highly complex with many and various contending polarities. It is a society in a state of becoming and change, one whose social contradictions are at the root of the struggle to transcend dehumanizing conditions. The Psychology of the Arab Dr. Talib Kafaji, 2011-08-31. The Psychology of The Arab deals with the domination of the ruthless Arab rulers who have inflicted enormous pain and suffering on the populace and who are intoxicated with the pathology of narcissism. The entire energy of the Arab population has to go toward massaging the Ego of these megalomaniacal leaders. They have split personality; both parts evil. Religion is a big piece of the fabric of Arab society. Arabs are inclined to focus solely on the ritualistic part of religion and ignore the foundation of religion, which is the faith in the Almighty God. Sadly, Arabs have never deeply absorbed the true teaching of God. In the time of Jaheliah, time before Islam, Arabs used to feel ashamed of having a baby girl. Thus they used to bury the girl alive. The strict adherence to the practice of virginity has kept the Arab woman in such a miserable place. Psychologically, virginity represents to a man that he is the first conqueror of a woman, as if he is in battle and the blood from deflowering a woman represents his victory. Arabs are inclined to overemphasize the significance of the words and pay less regard to action. That can be also a result of the psychological replacement of action by words. Throughout history, Arabs have been traders. Thus their way of thinking is inclined to be in terms of benefits and losses, and that has been reflected in the way how they deal with each other.
