Arabic Poetry And Orientalism Arabic Poetry And Comparative Poetics:

Jaroslav Stetkevych, 2004 Looks at the relationship between Arabic poetry and the poetic tradition in the west

The Poetics of the Obscene in Premodern Arabic Poetry S. Antoon, 2014-02-27 The book is the first study of the 10th century Iraqi poet Ibn al Hajjaj who popularized a new genre of obscene and scatological parody sukhf and is considered the most obscene poet in Arabic literature Antoon traces the genealogy of this fascinating genre in and examines its rise by placing it in its sociopolitical context

Arabic Literature for the Classroom Mushin al-Musawi, 2017-04-21 This book presents theoretical and methodical cultural concerns in teaching literatures from non American cultures along with issues of cross cultural communication cultural competency and translation Covering topics such as the 1001 Nights Maqamat Arabic poetry women s writing classical poetics issues of gender race and class North African concerns language acquisition through literature Arab spring writing women s correspondence issues connected with the so called nahdah revival movement in the 19th century and many others the book provides perspectives and topics that serve in both the planning of new courses and accommodation to already existing programs

Arabic, Persian, and Turkic Poetics Hany Rashwan, 2024 Arabic Persian and Turkic Poetics Towards a Post Eurocentric Literary Theory is a pioneering book that offers a fresh perspective on Arabic Persian and Turkic literature in their interrelations The authors challenge Eurocentric paradigms while creating a framework for exploring these traditions on their own terms Authored by an international team of scholars each chapter centres the literary theoretical traditions of their respective literatures with a focus on the discipline of comparative poetics ilm al bal gha in the Islamic world By liberating the study of Islamicate literary texts from Eurocentric theoretical paradigms the book paves the way for a more inclusive global discourse in literary studies Specifically our theoretical roots in comparative poetics and the rhetorical traditions of Arabic Persian and Turkic literatures will foster new methods of close reading that are in line with the aesthetic standards intrinsic to these texts and their traditions Engaging and insightful this book is essential reading for anyone interested in broadening their understanding of world literature and literary theory

Arab Voices in Diaspora , 2009-01-01 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors aspirations Hussein offers fresh insights into the role of scholarly practices in advancing new perspectives on the region and its peoples and forging a modern Zionist Hebrew identity Illuminating the intricate and often contradictory engagement of Hebrew scholars with Arabo Islamic culture Hebrew Orientalism informs contemporary discussions of postcolonialism and settler colonialism and enriches our understanding of the historical dynamics between Jews and Arabs in Palestine How Do You Say "Epigram" in Arabic?: Literary History at the Limits of Comparison Adam Talib, 2018-01-29 The qa dah and the qi ah are well known to scholars of classical Arabic literature but the maq a form of poetry that emerged in the thirteenth century and soon became ubiquitous is as obscure today as it was once popular These poems circulated across the Arabo Islamic world for some six centuries in speech letters inscriptions and above all anthologies Drawing on more than a hundred unpublished and published works How Do You Say Epigram in Arabic is the first study of this highly popular and adaptable genre of Arabic poetry By addressing this lacuna the book models an alternative comparative literature one in which the history of Arabic poetry has as much to tell us about epigrams as does Greek The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Islamic Spirituality Vincent J.
