The Spirit of Tolerance in Islam Reza Shah-Kazemi,2012-01-27 In 1932 the eminent British scholar of Islam Sir Hamilton Gibb wrote The nobility and broad tolerance of this religion Islam which accepted all the real religions of the world as God inspired will always be a glorious heritage for mankind No other society has such a record of success in uniting in an equality of status of opportunity and of endeavor so many and so various races of humanity Whither Islam Such scholarly objectivity towards the tolerance which has historically characterized the Islamic tradition as a whole is in short supply these days Through an insidious symbiosis of fanatical Muslims and prejudiced Islamophobes the very opposite image of Islam has emerged as one of the most dangerous stereotypes of our times The most cursory glance at history will not only reveal the falsity of this stereotype of an intolerant Islam it will also reveal the little known fact that not so long ago it was the Islamic world that provided models of tolerant conduct for a fanatically intolerant Christian world tearing itself apart over dogmatic differences The first part of this monograph examines the historical record of tolerance in the Islamic tradition illustrating the expression of the principle of tolerance through the rule of such dynasties as the Ottomans Mughals Fatimids and the Umayyads of Spain In the second the principle of tolerance is shown to be rooted in the spirit of the Qur anic revelation and embodied in the exemplary conduct of the Prophet
