Arabs In History:

The Arabs in History Bernard Lewis,1967 This volume considers the achievement of the Arab peoples and their place in world history from pre Islamic times to the mid 1960s The author examines the awakening that accompanied the advent of Islam and the political religious and social developments that transformed the Arab kingdom into an Islamic empire He describes events in the Middle East and analyzes the forces internal and external that have shaped the Arab world He shows how Western inventions and institutions have shattered the old structures and the traditional way of life affecting every Arab and causing a still unsatisfied demand for social political and cultural renewal A Survey of Arab History Bernard G.

history of the Arab peoples and tribes that explores the role of language as a cultural touchstone This kaleidoscopic book covers almost 3 000 years of Arab history and shines a light on the footloose Arab peoples and tribes who conquered lands and disseminated their language and culture over vast distances Tracing this process to the origins of the Arabic language rather than the advent of Islam Tim Mackintosh Smith begins his narrative more than a thousand years before Muhammad and focuses on how Arabic both spoken and written has functioned as a vital source of shared cultural identity over the millennia Mackintosh Smith reveals how linguistic developments from pre Islamic poetry to the growth of script Muhammad s use of writing and the later problems of printing Arabic have helped and hindered the progress of Arab history and investigates how even in today s politically fractured post Arab Spring environment Arabic itself is still a source of unity and disunity
