Middle Eastern Gothics Karen Grumberg, 2022-12-15 The chapters in this study cover the four major Middle Eastern languages Arabic Hebrew Persian and Turkish and are authored by experts in these literatures who read and engage with these texts in their original languages Their intimate knowledge of the linguistic and cultural contexts of the works they analyse provides readers access to nuances in the texts and ultimately to a more profound understanding of them This is the first cohesive collection addressing the Gothic in the geographic linguistic context of the Middle East region There has been increased interest not only in global iterations of the Gothic but also in Middle Eastern writing particularly when it intersects with the Gothic i e Frankenstein in Baghdad The Introduction of the volume offers a new theorisation of Gothic literature proposing the transnational region as a frame for reading literary texts that cross national and linguistic boundaries

Esotericism and Deviance , 2024-02-06 The concept of deviance has been central to the academic study of Western esotericism since its inception This book being the proceedings of the 6th Biennial Conference of the European Society for the Study of Western Esotericism ESSWE explores the relationship between esotericism and various forms of deviance as concept category and practice from antiquity until late modernity The volume is the first to combine incisive conceptual explorations of the concept of deviance and how it informs and challenges the study of esotericism alongside a wide range of empirically grounded case discussions

Maps of Empire Kyle Wanberg, 2020-07-09 During the political upheavals of the mid twentieth century as imperialism was unraveling on a grand scale writers from colonized and occupied spaces questioned the necessity and ethics of their histories As empire wrote back to the self ordained centres of the world modes of representation underwent a transformation Exploring novels and diverse forms of literature from regions in West Africa the Middle East and Indigenous America Maps of Empire considers how writers struggle with the unstable boundaries generated by colonial projects and their dissolution The literary spaces covered in the book form imaginary states or reimagine actual cartographies and identities sanctioned under empire The works examined in Maps of Empire through their inner representations and their outer histories of reception inspire and provoke us to reconsider boundaries

A Comparative Guide to Sartrean and Deleuzian Selves in Modernist and Post-Modernist Fiction Onur Ekler, 2021-07-12 This book provides insights into the maze of know thyself through a carefully detailed comparative study of the Sartrean no self and the Deleuzian rhizomic self It is informative argumentative and rich in literary context and mainly focuses on the shift in the notion of self from Sartre's elegiac suicidal and nihilistic tone seen pervasively in modernist fiction to the celebratory Deleuzian self in postmodernist fiction To trace this shift the book presents a comparative analysis of selected novels showing that authors like Bellow and Atwood have adopted a more positive attitude toward the self similar to the Deleuzian rhizomic self while authors like Hedayat and Beckett have more reductionist decadent nihilistic views on the self like the Sartrean no self Moreover as argued in the cases of the protagonists in the selected novels this book further asserts that the Deleuzian rhizomic self might be seen as a possible alternative to help one survive in times of crisis in contrast to the nihilistic Sartrean no self

Censoring an Iranian Love Story Shahriar Mandanipour, 2009-05-05 A NEW YORKER BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR One of Iran's most important living fiction writers The Guardian shows what it's like to live and love there today A haunting portrait of life in the Islamic Republic of Iran The New York Times In a country where mere proximity between a man and a woman may be the prologue to deadly sin where illicit passion is punished by imprisonment or even death telling that most redemptive of human narratives becomes the greatest literary challenge If conducting a love affair in modern Iran is not a simple undertaking then telling the story of that love may be even more difficult Shahriar Mandanipour author of Moon Brow evokes a pair of young lovers who find each other despite surreal persecution and repressive parents through coded messages and internet chat rooms and triumphantly their story entwines with an account of their creator's struggle Inventive darkly comic and profoundly touching Censoring an Iranian Love Story celebrates both the unquenchable power of the written word and a love that is doomed glorious and utterly real

The Navigator's Dream, Volume 3 Julia A. Turk, 2012-02-24 In this third and final volume of Julia Turk's Navigators Dream series the Navigator makes one final voyage into the realm of tarot to ultimately find enlightenment but it will be much more difficult than a simple turn of the cards for our psychiatrist turned philosopher and mystic In Seetime the hero ascends into the Major Arcana of the tarot deck via a sailboat led by the Higher Self of the Navigator known as Guide Joined together with a motley crew the sailboat takes the Navigator and Guide deep within the islands or Sephiroth of the Mystic SEA These are not tropical islands intended for peace and comfort each island is different than the last and each carries a mystery that must be unraveled Although the Navigator has learned much amidst the tarot cards has the hero learned enough to make it home Externally the Navigator has difficulties but internally there are problems as well as the riddles unravel so do the deeply held psychological issues of the Navigator By the end the mysteries of the Major Arcana might be solved but will the Navigator be able to heal the wounds built prior to the tarot adventure
