The Literary Atlas of Cairo Samia Mehrez, 2010 Unlike The Literary Atlas of Cairo which focuses on the literary geopolitics of the cityscape this companion volume immerses the reader in the complex network of socioeconomic and cultural lives in the city The seven chapters first introduce the reader to representations of some of Cairo's prominent profiles both political and cultural and their impact on the city's literary geography before presenting a spectrum of readings of the city by its multiethnic multinational and multilingual writers across class gender and generation Daunting images of colonial school experiences and startling contrasts of postcolonial educational realities are revealed while Cairo's moments of political participation and oppression are illustrated as well as the space accorded to women within the city across history and class The city's marginals are placed on its literary map alongside representations of the relationship between writing and drugs and the places paraphernalia and products of the drug world across class and time

Conscience of the Nation

Richard Jacquemond, 2008 Artfully combining social and literary history this unique study explores the dual loyalties of contemporary Egyptian authors from the 1952 Revolution to the present day Egypt's writers have long had an elevated idea of their social mission considering themselves the conscience of the nation At the same time modern Egyptian writers work under the liberal conception of the writer borrowed from the European model As a result each Egyptian writer treads the tightrope between authority and freedom social commitment and artistic license loyalty to the state and to personal expression in an ongoing quest for an elusive literary ideal With these fundamentals in mind Conscience of the Nation examines Egyptian literary production over the past fifty years surveying works by established writers as well as those of dozens of other authors who are celebrated in Egypt but whose writings are largely unknown to the foreign reader Novelists and poets scriptwriters and playwrights critics and journalists all have battled with and tried to resolve the tensions inherent in the conflicting forces of self and society
