Craig Lucas

Blue Window:

The Blue Window Suzanne Berne, 2024-01-23 Silence has always marked Lorna's family. Her father was deaf. Her mother Marika helped rescue children as a teenage member of the Dutch Resistance yet later abandoned her own young son and daughter. No explanation was ever offered. Nor why she resurfaced decades afterward to invite Lorna, by then a married social worker with a baby, to visit her remote cottage on Lake Champlain. For the past eighteen years, Lorna has struggled to make taciturn Marika part of the family if only so her son Adam could have a grandmother. But now it's Adam who's turned silent.

Blue Window Adina Rische Gewirtz, 2018-04-03 Five siblings fall through time and space into a strange unkind world, their arrival mysteriously foretold and land in the center of an epic civil struggle in a country where many citizens have given themselves over to their primal fears and animal passions at the urging of a power-hungry demagogue. When siblings Susan, Max, Nell, Kate, and Jean tumble one by one through a glowing cobalt window, they find themselves outside their cozy home and in a completely unfamiliar world where everything looks wrong and nothing makes sense. Soon an ancient prophecy leads them into battle with mysterious forces that threaten to break the siblings apart even as they try desperately to remain united and find their way home. Thirteen-year-old twins Max and Susan and their younger siblings take turns narrating the events of their story in unique perspectives as each of the children tries to comprehend their stunning predicament and their extraordinary new powers in his or her own way. From acclaimed author Adina Rische Gewirtz comes a riveting novel in the vein of C. S. Lewis and E. Nesbit, full of nuanced questions about morality, family, and the meaning of home.

Blue Window Craig Lucas, 1985 Depicts seven New Yorkers before, during, and after a party. Blue Windows Barbara Wilson, 2014-12-30 From Mary Baker Eddy, the founder of the Church of Christian Science, to Deepak Chopra, Americans have struggled with the connection between health and happiness. Barbara Wilson was taught by her Christian Scientist family that there was no sickness or evil and that by maintaining this belief she would be protected. But such beliefs were challenged when Wilson's own mother died of breast cancer after deciding not to seek medical attention, having been driven mad by the contradiction between her religion and her reality. In this perceptive and textured memoir, Blue Windows, Wilson surveys the complex history of Christian Science and the role of women in religion and healing.

The Blue Window Temple Bailey, 1926 From the Blue Windows Tan Kok Yang, 2013-04-01 Imagine a Singapore in which flat rental was $50 a month, a plate of noodles cost as little as 20 cents, and television broadcasts ended at 10pm every night. From the Blue Windows is a collection of Tan Kok Yang's memories of growing up in Queenstown, back when the tallest residential building there was fourteen storeys, the Alexandra Canal flooded regularly, and wayang shows were a regular feature on Mei Ling Street. He stayed in Princess Estate, an area that was colloquially known as the Blue Windows because of its unique blue glass louvered windows.

Trying Again to Stop Time Jalal Barzanji, 2015-04-15 It s a losing battle my words have no chance against time Sometimes unable to catch up with imagination I leave the battle candle in hand in complete darkness from Trying Again to Stop Time Jalal Barzanji chronicles the path of exile and estrangement from his beloved native Kurdistan to his chosen home in Canada His poems speak of the tension that exists between the place of one s birth and an adoptive land of that delicate dance that happens in the face of censorship and oppression In defiance of Saddam Hussein s call for sycophantic political verse he turns to the natural world to reference a mournful state of loss longing alienation and melancholy Barzanji s poetry is infused with the richness of the Middle East but underlying it all is a close affinity to Western Modernists In those moments where language and culture collide and co operate Barzanji carves out a strong voice of opposition to political oppression Readers will return to his work again and again just as viewers return to a favourite painting Like contemporary poets Taslima Nasrin Adonis Yehuda Amichai and Shuntaro Tanikawa Barzanji s is a voice in which the native willingly mutates into the global Sabah A Salih Translator
