Blessings From Heaven:

Blessings from Heaven Wendy Gelsthorpe, 2017-11-03 The inspiration for the poems in this book was taken from stories in the Holy Bible mainly from the life of Jesus beginning with the visit of the Angel Gabriel to his mother Mary The Annunciation Many aspects of Jesus character are reflected in these poems such as forgiveness truth self knowledge and peace he was known as the Prince of Peace The new commandment he gave his disciples before his death inspired the poem The Greatest Commandment The betrayal of Jesus by Judas Iscariot one of Jesus own disciples was the subject of a poem and Simon Peter denying that he knew Jesus was another amazing story Then came the Crucifixion portrayed in the poem The Easter Tale which was followed by the story of the Resurrection Christ is Risen Next was the poem about Mary Magdalene weeping at the empty tomb where Jesus body had been laid When Jesus appeared before her she did not recognize him until he spoke her name Mary What a moment that must have been for her Pentecost was the next poem which tells of how the disciples obeyed Jesus command to wait for the gift of the Holy Spirit to be bestowed upon them The crowd were amazed by the things the Disciples said and did after receiving the Holy Spirit Some poems even came to the author during the night Truly they were Blessings from Heaven which became the title of this book Blessings from Heaven , Obtaining the Blessings of Heaven Blaine M. Yorgason, Brenton G. Yorgason, 1991

Meditations On Ephesians Henry Law, 2020-04-03 Wide and diversified is the work belonging to the Church of Christ In the household of God there is no pillow for the indolent The term an idle Christian involves a contradiction It has scarcely more meaning than a rayless sun a waveless ocean a noiseless waterfall a rose without perfume In this community each member has his appointed place We are His workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto good works which God has before ordained that we should walk in them Not slothful in business fervent in spirit serving the Lord is the universal rule The final welcome is Well done good and faithful servant But my present object restricts thought to pastoral work The selection of its subject arose from desire to sanctify Family Worship He is the best of friends who helps his friend to pray It may be presumed that such worship is an established institution in every Christian household Countless are the resulting blessings Its neglect would be grievous shame and sad loss It is scarcely possible to conceive an exercise more sweet more happy more edifying Many and loud are the calls to it For what spiritual joy can be greater than for the members of a house to unite in offering grateful praise for the common blessings which each morning and evening should commemorate and to combine in joint supplication for protection from the perils which the day and night may bring Especial needs will continually occur Rich is the mercy that we are permitted with united cry to bring such need before the Throne of Grace
