Bluenose Queen Of The Grand Banks:

Bluenose, Queen of the Grand Banks Feenie Ziner, Zeke Ziner, 1970 Describes the racing and fishing career of the Canadian schooner Bluenose how she was built and her relationship with the men who sailed in her Sailing for Glory Teri-Lynn Janveau, Allister Thompson, 2006-10-01 This book tells the story of the unique bond between Captain Walters and his schooner the Bluenose and also brings to life the danger and adventure of the life of a North Atlantic fisherman in the days of sail A Race for Real Sailors Keith McLaren, 2021-03-26 In the summer of 1920 the public following the latest America's Cup series were frustrated to find that every time the wind got up the organizers called off the race There was muttering in the taverns of Halifax and Lunenburg why not show these fancy yachtsmen what real sailors can do A Nova Scotia newspaper donated a trophy and put out a challenge to their rivals in New England inviting them to meet the Maritimes best in a race for real sailors A Race for Real Sailors is a vibrant history of the Fishermen's Cup series which dominated sporting headlines between the two world wars The salt spray practically blows off the page as the author's arresting style captures the drama of each race and the personalities of the ships that contested them the Delawana and the Esperanto the Columbia and the Gertrude L Thebaud and dominating them all the Bluenose the big brute from Lunenburg whose image shines on the Canadian dime to this day Vying for the spotlight are the boats larger than life skippers among them Marty Welch the hard charging American who first took the cup Ben Pine the Gloucester scrap dealer whose passion kept the races afloat when they seemed destined to fade away and the irascible impossible Angus Walters master of the Bluenose who repeatedly broke American hearts but whose own heart was broken by Canada's refusal to come to the rescue of his beloved vessel This stirring and poignant tale is illustrated with 51 historical photographs and five maps and rounded out by a glossary of sailing terms and an appendix of the ever changing race rules This is a story that will keep even confirmed landlubbers pegged to their seats a tale of iron men and wooden ships whose time will never come again

Caught in Irons Michael Wayne Santos, 2002 Santos history Lynchburg College uses the international fishermen's races that captured popular imagination in the US and Canada during the 1920s and 1930s as a means for discussing the changing economic and social realities that redefined the North Atlantic fisheries and the society as a whole Seafaring Labour Eric W. Sager, 1989-04-01 Sager argues that sailors were not misfits or outcasts but were divorced from society only by virtue of their occupation The wooden ships were small communities at sea fragments of normal society where workers lived struggled and often died With the coming of the age of steam the sailor became part of a new division of labour and a new social hierarchy at sea Sager shows that the sailor was as integral to the transition to industrial capitalism as any land worker Bluenose Devyn Kaizer, 2018-07-09 This book documents the beautiful Tall Ship Bluenose now a sailing ambassador for the province of Nova Scotia and tells the dramatic story of the battles and triumphs of original Bluenose The original Bluenose built in Lunenburg and launched in 1921 was designed to combine a career as a racing ship with the working role fishing the Grand Banks off Newfoundland Its captain Angus Walters took Bluenose to five international sailing races and was undefeated for seventeen years By the 1930s the vessel s achievements made it an icon for Nova Scotia and an important Canadian symbol The newly restored replica the Bluenose II represents the wooden shipbuilding achievements and the dory based cod fishery traditions of Nova Scotia This book offers an interpretive guide of the ship and its complex traditional equipment It also tells the story of the original Bluenose with many historic photographs of the ship and its crew aboard the most famous Tall Ship in Canada in this souvenir of a vessel whose history and allure continues to captivate to this day Maritime Capital Eric W. Sager, Gerald E. Panting, 1996 In this final volume of the Atlantic Canada Shipping Project Sager and Panting argue that the decline of the shipping industry was not as has commonly been assumed the inevitable result of the conversion from wood and sail to iron and steam They show that the merchant class in failing to maintain a merchant marine built and owned in their region contributed in no small way to the Maritimes present state of underdevelopment Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Boating , 1971-07 The Log of Mystic Seaport , 1995 *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
