African Forms Art And Rituals:

African Forms Laure Meyer, 2001 Illuminates an aspect of African art that has largely been neglected by other books African sculptures and art can be difficult to decipher because they are more than tokens of art for art's sake African art is often based on religious and philosophical values It is created not just for the patron but for the entire community using a language of form to help the society to understand what cannot otherwise be put into words Through an enlightening analysis of some continent's most emblematic artifacts this book decodes African art by putting it in the context of the broader culture It is thematically organized around key motifs to help you fully understand African art 150 colour illustrations

Traditional African Art Avner Shkarov, Lyubov Senatorova, 2015-07-06 The art of sub-Saharan Africa reveals the marvelous achievements of unknown artists over thousands of years Their aesthetic ideal finds form in wood ivory fabric bronze and iron This illustrated study of traditional African art includes pieces from Western Sudan the Congolese Basin the Guinea coast Gabon the Democratic Republic of Congo and East and South Africa Each piece is characterized by its own traditions and artistic forms The earliest works date from the beginning of the first millennium the most recent from the early 20th century Unique and rare examples are documented many heretofore virtually unknown

Bambui Arts and Culture Mathias Fubah Alubafi, 2018-11-14 This book focuses on the traditional arts and culture of Bambui a kingdom in the western Grassfields of Cameroon Although a small kingdom in comparison to much bigger kingdoms such as Mankon Banson Kom and Bali the arts and culture of this kingdom have served and continue to serve as a way of life as ritual as decoration and as a means of uniting with the sublime since pre-colonial times However in presenting the arts and culture of the western Grassfields scholars have given much attention only to the dominant kingdoms As such Bambui and many other smaller kingdoms have been rendered voiceless This text brings forth the voice of one of the smallest kingdoms in the western Grassfields through the presentation of its historical arts and culture and the changes that have taken and continue to take place in the society It represents primarily an examination of the socio-cultural organisation of the kingdom and the various kinds of art that are used within the different contexts These milestones are well illustrated with historical and contemporary images

Emotions in Rituals and Performances Axel Michaels, Christoph Wulf, 2020-11-29 Challenging the idea that rituals are static and emotions irrational the volume explores the manifold qualities of emotions in ritual practices Focusing explicitly on the relationship between emotions and rituals it poses two central questions First how and to what extent do emotions shape rituals Second in what way are emotions ritualized in and beyond rituals Strong emotions are generally considered to be more spontaneous and uncontrolled whereas ritual behaviour is regarded as planned formalized and stereotyped and hence less emotional However as the volume demonstrates rituals often reveal strong emotions among participants are motivated by feelings or are intended to generate them The essays discuss the motivation for rituals the healing function of emotions the creation of new emotions through new media the aspect of mimesis in the generation of feelings individual collective and non human emotions the importance of trance and possession staged emotions and emotions on stage emotions in the context of martyrdom emotions in Indian and Western dance traditions emotions of love sorrow fear aggression and devotion Furthermore aesthetic and sensory dimensions as well as emic concepts of emotions in rituals are underscored as relevant in understanding social practice

Indigenous African Communication and Media Systems in a Digitized Age Unwana Samuel Akpan, Eddah Mbula Mutua, 2024-12-16 Through a meticulous exploration of oral traditions and community based media practices Unwana Samuel Akpan Eddah Mutua and the contributors of Indigenous African Communication and Media Systems in a Digitized Age explore the intricate interplay between traditional African communication methods and the modern digital terrain to unveil how these age old systems are continuously evolving in response to globalization and digital advancements From the rhythmic beats of the talking drum to the vibrant tapestry of oral histories this book traces how Indigenous African societies have historically disseminated knowledge and preserved cultural identities It examines the transformative impact of digital technologies on these practices to explore the rise of social media mobile connectivity and online storytelling platforms within African contexts Akpan and Mutua challenge conventional narratives of media development by highlighting the resilience and relevance of African cultural expressions in an increasingly interconnected world This book is essential reading for Afrocentric scholars and those interested in media studies cultural anthropology and the dynamic intersections of tradition and technology Art and Ritual in the Black Diaspora Paul Griffith, 2016-12-14 Archetypes of Transition in Diaspora Art and Ritual examines residually oral conventions that shape the black diaspora imaginary in the Caribbean and America Colonial humanist violations and inverse issues of black cultural and psychological affirmation are indexed in terms of a visionary gestalt according to which inner and outer realities unify creatively in natural and metaphysical orders Paul Griffith's central focus is hermeneutical examining the way in which religious and secular symbols inherent in rite and word as in vodun limbo the spirituals puttin on ole massa and dramatic and narrative structures for example are made basic to the liberating post colonial struggle This evident interpenetration of political and religious visions looks back to death rebirth traditions through which African groups made sense of the intervention of evil into social order Herein moreover the explanatory epistemic and therapeutic structures of art and ritual share correspondences with the mythic archetypes that Carl Jung posits as a psychological inheritance of human beings universally
