African Traditional Religion:

African Traditional Religion in the Light of the Bible Richard J. Gehman, 2001 Foundations of African Traditional Religion and Worldview Yusufu Turaki, 2006 Comparative Studies of African Traditional Religions Emefie Ikenga Metuh, 1987 African Traditional Religions S. A. Thorpe, 1991 In an introduction to the variety of African traditional religions rather than exploring each and every one this book offers five examples which are believed to be broadly representative Zulu and Shona systems are chosen to introduce the southern Bantu religions Ancient hunting and gathering religious approaches from the San of equatorial southern Africa and the Mbuti pygmies of the equatorial rain forest are included they may have influenced the more structured Bantu systems And the complex well developed religious systems of West Africa are represented by inclusion of the Yoruba Introduction to African Religion John S. Mbiti, 1991 These traditional reads are brimming with spirited characters and positive values but with a little extra excitement and bite so hold on to your hats Written expressly for the middle grade struggling reader the series does not contain strong language edgy themes or dysfunctional families In fact family is the main theme of these titles And one particular Latino family is the focus with their uncanny knack for finding humor hope and colorful personalities even in unusual circumstances Written at the lowest reading levels the 50 page story structure is straightforward and moves the reader through the text quickly and efficiently They were trapped Then Ana remembered the old stone church It was nearby She knew the old building was the safest place for her family It could withstand the high winds and rising water African Traditional Religions in Contemporary Society Jacob Kehinde Olupona, 1991 African Religions Benjamin C. Ray, 2000 This book presents a portrait of African religious history framed in the religious themes common to the rest of the world It looks at the traditional religions that provided the philosophical religious and ethical basis of African culture Focusing primarily on traditional African religions and their related myths rituals authorities ethics and artwork the book also includes substantial treatment on nationalism African Islam and Christianity For anyone who wants to gain an understanding of the relationship between African religion and culture African Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Afeosemimo Unuoso Adogame, Ezra Chitando, Bolaji Bateye, 2012 This book presents a unique exploration of African traditions in the study of religion in Africa and the new African diaspora Contributors drawn from diverse African and global contexts situate current scholarly traditions of the study of African religions within the purview of academic encounter and exchanges with non African scholars and non African contexts Jacob Kehinde Olupona stands out as a pioneer in the socio scientific interpretation of African indigenous religion and religions in Africa This book marks his immense contribution to an emerging field of study and research African Traditional Religion E. Bolaji Idowu, 1973 The Individual and Community in African Traditional Religions Theo Sundermeier, 1998 The writer has done a careful scholarly and sensitive and very positive and fair study of African religion with particular reference to the individual and community Theo Sundermeier lets Africa speak for itself and on its own terms and in its own categories The concluding chapter is a necessary reading for all who would be on mission who would seek to live the ecumenical imperative and care to ensure that the pursuit of a religion does not result in dehumanization and degradation and marginalization of the other person Rev Canon Prof John S Pobee World Council of Churches Geneva Switzerland This book treats the subject of African religions in a creative and interesting way emphasizing that these religions are genuine authentic expressions of religiosity on a par with other religions including the so called world religions The author provides an excellent account of the nature interdependence between individual community society and the natural order an interdependence which these religions symbolize and express in ritual and belief Likewise the essentially personal nature of power as conceived in African culture is thoughtfully and interestingly analysed There are many other thought provoking ideas and interpretations in this volume including the deconstruction of the commonly held notions of the distinction between witchcraft and magic This is a most worthwhile contribution to the study of Africa s traditional religions and I am convinced all those with an interest in Africa who read it will gain much therefrom Professor Peter B Clarke Professor of the History and Sociology of Religion in the University of London at King s College and formerly Professor of African History at the University of Ibadan Nigeria Theo Sundermeier is Professor of the History of Religion and Missiology at the Ruprecht Karls Universit t Heidelberg translated by Elaine Griffiths Eleanor Jackson
