African Universities In The Twentyfirst Century Liberalisation And Internationalisation:

Higher Education in Africa Damtew Teferra, Jane Knight, 2008 The first of its kind this book documents and analyzes the international dimension of higher education in Africa based on country case studies and a consideration of relevant historical and contemporary themes It identifies trends developments and challenges related to the international dimension of higher educational at the institutional national and regional levels It explores the institutional the opportunities and probes the risks while it responds to the growing need for information and analysis of internationalization of higher education in Africa On the basis of this book project an effort is underway to establish the African Network for Internationalization of Education ANIE This network aims to develop research capacity and expertise to meet the professional and practical needs of individuals institutions and organizations interested in the international dimension of higher education in Africa

Higher Education Transformation in Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2024-11-05 This book critically interrogates the notion of transformation in higher education focusing on epistemological and structural issues in postcolonial and contemporary Africa The book considers the multifaceted challenges facing higher education in the continent and uses the concept of transformation as a common thread weaving through a range of issues including epistemology identity relevance research collaboration and decoloniality Arguing for a holistic approach towards progressive and innovative education systems the book calls for a fundamental transformation that expands access enhances quality and competitiveness addresses past injustices and improves the capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Overall the book makes a powerful case for the power of transformation in higher education to shape the social economic and cultural fabric of society This book s critical evaluation of knowledge production in Africa will be an important read for researchers and policymakers involved in Africa s higher education sector

African Universities in the Twenty-first Century: Liberalisation and internationalisation Paul Tiyaambe Zeleza, Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 2004 As the twenty first century unfolds African universities and indeed universities everywhere are undergoing unprecedented change and confronting multiple challenges brought about by the vast and complex processes of globalisation and technological change Powerful internal and external forces political pecuniary and paradigmatic are reconfiguring all aspects of university life constituted around the triple mission of teaching research and service The need for redefining the role and defending the importance of universities has never been greater How are African universities trying to balance the demands of autonomy and accountability expansion and excellence equity and efficiency diversification and differentiation internationalisation and indigenisation in the face of liberalisation and privatisation and as they address the new challenges of knowledge production and dissemination of Africanising global scholarship and globalising African scholarship What innovative approaches can they adopt to facilitate the sustainable development of African economies societies and politics The two volumes in the Codesria Book Series address these issues They articulate new values and missions for African universities and define effective strategies to meet the challenges Written by some of Africa's leading educators Volume I examines the implications of the neo liberal reforms and the new information technologies on African higher education while Volume II interrogates the changing social dynamics of knowledge production university organisation and public service and engagement

Decolonizing International Relations Branwen Gruffydd Jones, 2006-09-20 The discipline of International Relations IR is concerned with the powerful states and actors in the global political economy and dominated by North American and European scholars This book exposes the ways in which IR has consistently ignored questions of colonialism imperialism race slavery and dispossession in the non European world

Africa in the Age of Globalisation Edward Shizha, Lamine Diallo, 2016-03-09 This is a collection of bold and visionary scholarship that reveals an insightful exposition of re-visioning African development from African perspectives It provides educators policy makers social workers non governmental agencies and development agencies with an interdisciplinary conceptual base that can effectively guide them in planning and implementing programs for socio economic development in Africa The book provides up to date scholarly research on continental trends on various subjects and concerns of paramount importance to globalisation and development in Africa politics democracy education gender technology global relationships and the role of non governmental organisations The authors challenge the familiar paradigms in order to show how imperfectly if at all assumptions about globalisation and development theories have failed in their depictions and applications to Africa The scholars in this volume both inform and advocate for a re-visioning of perceptions on Africa and how it navigates global processes

Academic Cooperation with Africa Eike W. Schamp, Schmid. Stefan, 2008

Universities and the Occult Rituals of the Corporate World Felicity Wood, 2018-04-17 Universities and the Occult Rituals of the Corporate World explores the metaphorical parallels between corporatised market oriented universities and aspects of the occult In the process the book shows that the forms of mystery mythmaking and ritual now common in restructured institutions of higher education stem from their new power structures and procedures and the economic and sociopolitical factors that have generated them Wood argues that universities have acquired occult aspects as the beliefs and practices underpinning present day market driven academic discourse and practice weave spells of corporate potency invoking the bewildering magic of the market and the arcane mysteries of capitalism thriving on equivocation and evasion Making particular reference to South African universities the book demonstrates the ways in which apparently rational features of contemporary Western and westernised societies have acquired occult aspects It also includes discussion of higher education institutions in other countries where neoliberal economic agendas are influential such as the UK the USA the Eurozone states and Australia Providing a unique and thought provoking look at the impact of the marketisation of Higher Education this book will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of higher education educational policy and neoliberalism It should also be of great interest to academics in the fields of anthropology folklore and cultural studies as well as business economics and management Selected Themes in African Political Studies Lucky Asuelime, Suzanne Francis, 2014-08-04

Against the background of a long and continuing record of political instability in Africa this edited collection presents a multi disciplinary approach to selected issues in African political studies The contributions explore a range of political and conflict situations discuss efforts to develop indigenous conflict resolution mechanisms and consider some of the key political and economic issues facing the continent The specific country studies illuminate the diversity of the African continent and indicate the ways in which the political and socio economic contexts of African states bear directly upon the ability of states to solve political and economic challenges The volume seeks to present and promote novel analytical frameworks conceptual approaches and empirical accounts of relevance to scholars working on Africa and to practitioners and policy makers in politics governance and peace initiatives in Africa Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization Iddah Aoko Otieno, 2018-06-20 This book presents a comprehensive institutional level analysis of a single public institution of higher education in the Republic of Kenya using the case study method of investigation It is the first case study to use both qualitative and quantitative research methodology to illuminate the experiences of Kenyan public universities with internationalization post independence Focusing on Kenya s oldest national public university the University of Nairobi s experimentation with internationalization Kenyan Public Universities in the Age of Internationalization is a first in the East African region The book argues that attempts by institutions of higher education in Africa to engage in internationalization with the much more older and well established IHEs in the developed world has perpetuated the colonial legacy that has relegated these institutions to the position of the Other in the new international order Several policy implications are offered on what it means to participate in internationalization from a marginal peripheral position The conventional assumption that political independence would bring to most African countries and by extension their national public universities a period of freedom from political economic and cultural subjugation and exploitation by the more powerful world nations has proved elusive This book is intended for a broad audience in the field of Comparative International Education The mixed research methods used in this book will certainly appeal to instructors students and general readers interested in understanding the experiences of historically marginalized developing World institutions of higher education with internationalization

Epistemic Freedom in Africa Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2018-06-27 Epistemic Freedom in Africa is about the struggle for African people to think theorize interpret the world and write from where they are located unencumbered by Eurocentrism The imperial denial of common humanity to some human beings meant that in turn their knowledges and experiences lost their value their epistemic virtue Now in the twenty first century descendants of enslaved displaced colonized and racialized peoples have entered academies across the world proclaiming loudly that they are human beings their lives matter and they were born into valid and legitimate knowledge systems that are capable of helping humanity to transcend the current epistemic and systemic crises Together they are engaging in diverse struggles for cognitive justice fighting against the epistemic line which haunts the twenty first century The renowned historian and decolonial theorist Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni offers a penetrating and well argued case for centering Africa as a legitimate historical unit of analysis and epistemic site from which to interpret the world whilst simultaneously making an equally strong argument for globalizing knowledge from Africa so as to attain ecologies of knowledges This is a dual process of both deprovincializing Africa and in turn provincializing Europe The book highlights how the mental universe of Africa was invaded and colonized the long standing struggles for an African university and the trajectories of contemporary decolonial movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall in South Africa This landmark work underscores the fact that only once the problem of epistemic freedom has been addressed can Africa achieve political cultural economic and other freedoms This groundbreaking new book is accessible to students and scholars across Education History Philosophy Ethics African Studies Development Studies Politics International Relations Sociology Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies The Open Access versions Chapter 1 and Chapter 9 available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9780429492204> have been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
