appreciation for the beauty and diversity of our world If you like this book write a review African Art in Motion Robert Farris Thompson, 2023-12-22 This captivating book offers an in depth exploration of the profound relationship between dance art and objects in African culture focusing on the ways in which movement breathes life into static forms In many parts of Africa dance extends beyond the human body uniting with everyday objects such as spinning tops and cutlasses transforming them into vibrant autonomous works of art The Tiv people of Nigeria exemplify this philosophy where the motion of a spinning top or a twirling blade is imbued with the same artistic essence as human dance This broader conception of dance highlights a fundamental principle in African art the fusion of movement form and life Motion in this context is not just a performance but a bridge to sacred realms where the aliveness of an image or object is essential for it to function as a work of art The book further delves into the unity of African art forms where sculpture dance music and visual objects are all intertwined creating a holistic aesthetic experience Famous examples such as the Basijom mask of Cameroon illustrate how art maintains its vitality even in stillness requiring ceremonial practices to anchor its powerful presence The author explores how these performances and objects combine not only to enhance the visual brilliance of the art but also to create metaphors for ethical and spiritual existence This seamless integration of the arts provides a rich framework for understanding the icons of African culture attitudes of the body like standing sitting and balancing which transcend time evoking themes of stability flexibility and balance Through this lens the book offers a journey into the timeless poetic world of African danced art where physical movement and artistic expression unite to reveal deeper truths about life and spirit This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974

Selves and Subjectivities Veronica Thompson, Manijeh Mannani, 2012 As critic Diana Brydon has argued contemporary Canadian writers are not transcending nation but resituating it Drawing together themes of gender and sexuality trauma and displacement performativity and linguistic diversity Selves and Subjectivities constitutes a thought provoking response to the question of what it means to be a Canadian P 4 of cover
